Saloon Men in South Bend Council Defeat Plan to Raise It.

REMORMERS NOW FACE RIOT CHARGE

Case of Miss Brooks at Hammond is Continued —Indiana News.

South Bend, Ind., March 28.—Three hundred dollars will cover the saloon license fee in this city, the council voting to a tie last night, which was the last chance to increase the fee under the Proctor law. Four saloon keepers, members of the council, with the help of one other made a dead-lock on the proposition to increase the fee to $500.

Hammond, Ind., March 28.—Charges of inciting a riot have been filed in Judge Green's court against Miss Virginia Brooks, the West Hammond reformer, who with ten women and six men appeared yesterday to answer to the charge of resisting an officer. The case was continued until next Monday and in the meantime, work on the pavement which led to Saturday's trouble causing the arrests of Miss Brooks and her followers, is at a stand still.

The board will reserve the announcement of all decisions until after adjournment of the quarterly meeting.

Danville, Ill., March 28.—Richard Seagraves, who is in jail here charged with the shooting of Noah Fyffe at East Lynn, Ill., last Saturday night, will have his preliminary examination next Monday. Seagraves says that if he did the shooting he has no recollection of it.

HEAVY VOTE AT COLUMBIA CITY

Keen Interest in Option Election in Whitley County Capital.

SEVEN CITIES VOTE

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Columbia City, Ind., March 28.—The option election in this city today has attracted the keen interest of every citizen in the community and up to 2 o'clock a large vote was being polled. Both the saloon and the anti-saloon factions are confident of victory and at present the outcome looks very uncertain. The "wets" are claiming the city by a larger majority than the "drys" and perhaps the saloon men have a slight advantage as the majority of the merchants of the city are working for the return of the liquor shops.

The only attempt at a demonstration of any kind was the union prayer meeting held at the Baptist church at 7 o'clock this morning. The polls opened at 6 o'clock and a large per cent of the votes were registered before noon. Both factions are working to bring out all the voters. The work is silent, though very effective.

SEVEN CITIES VOTING.

MADERO IN A NEW DECREE

Says Guerilla Warfare is Abandoned by Mexican Insurrectos.

CUTS COUNTRY UP INTO WAR ZONES

Thousands of Mexicans in Flight Seek Safety in United States.

El Paso, Tex., March 28.—Guerilla warfare has been formally abandoned by the Mexican insurrectos, according to a decree issued by Francisco I. Madero and made public here today. The decree organizes the entire republic of Mexico into seven groups of states, each group to be known as war zone, and the insurrectos in each group to constitute a corps.

Army ranks and the promise of a law giving pensions to widows and children are announced. Madero becomes "supreme head of the insurrecto army." One of the objects of Madero in abolishing guerilla warfare is to induce foreign countries to recognize the belligerency of the insurrectos it is stated.

Battle in Prospect.

Dispatches from Chihuahua City today say General Rabago with 100 federal troops has reached the city after having been on the march from Jaurez since February 24. Rabago went south to repair the burned bridges of the Mexican National railroad. Most of the bridges have been burned behind him and Chihuahua City is now said to be well fortified and commanded by 2,500 federals. It is reported a detachment of federals soon will be started northward to find and engage Madero.

Mail advices from Alamos, Sonora, confirm the report that revolutionists led by Loya, slaughtered every federal official of the town of Guaseparas near the Sonora line in Chihuahua when they took the town. All were placed in jail and shot.

A young telegraph operator alone escaped. He fell with others beneath the dead and crawled out twelve hours later alive and made his way barefooted to Chinipas, forty miles away.

Thousands in Flight.

Thousands of non-combatants in northern Mexico are struggling to get out of the country it is reported by refugees who have been able to reach the border.

Many women and children have no means of transportation. Others are afraid to attempt to make a living in a country foreign to them and still others are restrained by the fear that their property will fall into the hands of the insurrectos. Seventeen families on the border near El Paso today applied to customs officials to be allowed to bring their horses and household goods into this country. They pleaded that they were tired of fighting to preserve their property at the risk of their lives. Many families are moving to the American side of the river from Juarez because of persistent rumors that the city eventually will be attacked by the insurrectos. Business in Juarez continues as usual, it appears, however.

Discovered Insurrecto Plans.

Insurrecto plans to destroy the railroad bridges south of San Luis Potosi and prevent fuel oil shipments have been discovered, it was learned here today. This would have tied up the Mexican National railway system and other industrial enterprises in Mexico as most of Mexico's oils comes from the Ebano fields south of San Luis Potosi. Rebel bands are now operating in Jalisco and Secatescas, having crossed over from Durango. Several small towns have been taken, including Tialtenngo, where the national bank of Mexico, the postoffice and tax collector were robbed. San Juan de Teul, Monte Escobedo, Villaeuva, Ville Del Refugio, Humausco and Jalpa are other towns that have fallen into the hands of the insurgents. The closing of a mining plant at Tepic, capital of the state of Tepic has thrown 5,000 persons out of work and is causing riots. Many of the men, it is believed, will join the insurrectos.

PEACE PROPOSALS UP?

Father and Brother of Madero Arrive in San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, March 28.—Francisco I. Madero, sr., and Gustavo Madero, respectively father and brother of the Mexican Insurrecto Leader Francisco I. Madero, jr., arrived here today. They went at once to the house of Alfonso Madero, whose home is here and where the local junta meets. The Maderos said that the union was a purely personal affair but the impression prevails that matters of moment are to be considered in connection with peace proposals.

Thing is All Planned.

Diplomatic exchanges had proceeded sufficiently, Senor Madero added, to make safe to state that the vice presidency will be abolished.

Diaz will save his face by remaining in office for four or five months and then resigning. He will plead the weariness of his many years. It will then fall to De La Barra to become defacto president and to call an election. The administration party, it is said and believed by Senor Madero, will choose Limantour, the minister of finance, as its candidate for the highest office in the land.

Francisco I. Madero, Sr., father of the insurrecto leader, upon his arrival here today declared that peace in Mexico is assured within thirty days and probably within ten days. Himself, his son Alfonso and his son Gustavo, he thought would be the revolutionary representatives.

GIVEN SOME CREDENCE.

Mexico City Believes Diaz is Preparing to Resign.

Mexico City, March 28.—The report that President Diaz will resign is regarded as not wholly without foundation, though the date of such action is contingent on the re-establishment of peace.

CANNOT SPEAK IN CATHEDRAL

Bishop Quotes Bible in Refusing Permission to Woman.

MEETING IS MOVED

Albany, N. Y., March 28.—Bishop Wm. Croswell Doane has refused to permit Mrs. Elizabeth B. Grannis, president of the National League for the Promotion of Purity, to speak in All Saints cathedral at the convention of the Purity league, which was to have been held here today. In refusing Mrs. Grannis permission to speak Bishop Doane quoted from the bible, first Corinthians, 14:34:

"Let your women keep silence in the church; for it is not permitted unto them to speak."

Speaking of the affair, the bishop said that when he gave the league the right to hold the convention in the cathedral he was under the impression that Rev. J. Aspinwall McCuaig, the New York reformer, was to speak.

The meeting of the league will be held in New York, where Mrs. Grannis will address it.

Mr. and Mrs. N. William Wester, 1802 Spy Run avenue, left today for Chicago, where they will attend the funeral of Mr. Wester's sister.

Grant County Town Plans Erection of $40,000 Structure.

Trustee Doyle will purchase adjacent property, thus adding to the site of the new building, which will be accessible to both high and common school students of the city and county.

QUITS HOSPITAL; IS HIT BY CAR

John G. Brenner Injured While on His Way to Take Train Home.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Discharged from Hope hospital at 11:30 o'clock this morning and on his way to the Pennsylvania station to take the 12:15 train for his home at Geneva, John G. Brenner, 72 years of age, was struck by a north bound city car as he was crossing Calhoun street just above the tunnel, and thrown to one side of the track, sustaining a cut on the head and several minor bruises, which though not serious, were sufficient to cause his return to the hospital.

With the assistance of a citizen he walked to the hospital and shortly after his injuries were dressed was able to be up and about and, according to his own words to the Sentinel he did not feel any worse for the accident. In telling of the accident he said that when he was crossing the car tracks he was watching several automobiles going south on Calhoun street and did not notice the approach of the north bound car, the front steps of which struck him just as he stepped from the track.

Mr. Brenner is a civil war veteran, having been a member of Company D, 115th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and is employed as janitor in a bank at Geneva, by C. D. Porter, a brother of Dr. Miles Porter, chief surgeon of Hope hospital. He underwent an operation at Hope hospital about six weeks ago and has been a patient at the institution since that time. He stated to the Sentinel that he would in all probability return home Wednesday morning.

"TRIMMING" CHARGE UNJUST.

Coal Company Demands $51,000 From Five Railroads

Washington, March 28.—A complaint demanding reparation aggregating more than $51,000 from five railroads was filed today with the interstate commerce commission by the New England Coal and Coke company, of Boston, Mass. The defendant roads are the Norfolk and Western, the Baltimore and Ohio, the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Virginian railway and the Western Maryland.

It is alleged that the railways charge 3½ cents a ton for "trimming" or "levelling" the coal after it is discharged through the chutes into the coal holds of the vessels. It is asserted therefore that the charge for trimming is excessive and unjust.

30,000 UNDER DEATH'S SEAL

NEED TO LEARN OF THE DISEASE

Dr. W. A. Evans, of Chicago, on Health Week Program Tonight.

"There are 30,000 people now sentenced to death by consumption in this state. Every hour two deaths occur from the dread white plague in Indiana."

These were startling declarations made by Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health, in his talk on tuberculosis before an interested audience in the health week movement at Library hall last evening. Owing to the inclement weather the crowd was not as large as it might have been, but the large assembly room was fairly well filled with listeners. The various exhibits kept the interest of the crowd until 8 o'clock, when Dr. Hurty took his position on the stage and started his interesting lecture. Stereopticon views were used during the entire talk and many of the doctor's points were made the clearer by the use of the pictures on the screen.

Dr. Evans Tonight.

Dr. W. A. Evans, the widely-noted city health commissioner of Chicago, will be on the program this evening, speaking upon the subject "Early Diagnosis of Tuberculosis." Dr. Evans is expected to reach the city late this afternoon from New York, where he delivered an address last

MOSS GOT SIXTY DAYS WITH FINE

CARR IS SENT OVER

Although his wife declined to testify against him, Deputy Prosecutor Harry Hilgemann was able to show in the city court today that Edward A. Moss kicked his spouse while she was lying on the floor and dislocated one of her shoulders.

For this Judge J. Frank Mungovan fined him $25 and costs and added a jail sentence of sixty days. Following the arrest the wife declined to appear against her husband and said she did not want the case prosecuted, but Mr. Hilgemann objected to the dismissal on the ground that the case was an aggravated one. Mrs. Moss did not take the stand nor did the prisoner testify in his own behalf. An appeal bond was fixed at $200 and he said he would take the matter to the circuit court.

Moss is the proprietor of the Central hotel on West Main street, which was formerly known as the Ross house, and a raid of the establishment not long ago resulted in the arrest of two couples who had rented rooms for immoral purposes.

Carr Got Jail Sentence.

Lester Carr and his wife were convicted of keeping a house of ill fame and each was fined $10 and costs and given ten days in jail. The wife's jail sentence was suspended. Two men and two women were arrested there last night as the result of a fight. One of the women formerly lived at the Arlington hotel and is one of the state witnesses in the case against Charlie Clark, who was indicted by the grand jury. She was fined $5 and costs and gave the name of Marie Redding. Marie Reed was fined $5 and costs and given a suspended jail sentence of thirty days, with the understanding that she shall leave the city. The men were Herman Sievers and James Johnson and they were fined $10 and costs and given ten days for associating with women of ill repute. The sentences were suspended.

The place is at 207 West Pearl street and is the one formerly operated by "Dutch" Grace White and has been a source of great annoyance to the officials of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company and Carr and his wife had opened up in spite of the recent police order closing all houses of this character.

The Other Cases.

James Brady, a drunken cripple, who spent all the money he begged for drink, drew $5 and costs for public intoxication.

Pat Sheedy, who had not been in for a long time, was charged with drunkenness and let go with a warning.

Frank Harper, vagrant, was let go and Ward Husted, his partner, was held until tomorrow on the same charge.

The trespass case against Edward Moran was continued until next Saturday.

Frank E. Bougher went to Chicago this morning on a business trip.

COUNCIL TO GET A NEW MEASURE

Weights and Measures Ordinance Will Have a Substitute.

FOLLOW STATE LAW

A new ordinance, designed to take the place of Mr. Pinniger's weights and measures law, will be presented at the meeting of the city council tonight and steps will be taken looking toward the appointment of a city sealer under the recent enactment of the Indiana legislature.

The new ordinance will simply provide for the appointment by the mayor of a man for the position and will fix the salary at 1,500 a year and provision will be made for the payment of this amount. The duties of the sealer will be practically the same as those designated in the ordinance framed by Mr. Pinniger.

This will relieve the council committee on rules, regulations and ordinances which has had the measure in charge for some time without having been able to come to any agreement on a report. It was stated at the last council meeting that the members of the committee would look up the state law before reporting.

Other Matters Coming Up.

A report will be made by the special city hall committee recommending the purchase for $20,000 of two pieces of property adjoining the building on the east for the purpose of extension. Options have been secured.

An amendment requiring all persons, whether property owners or not, to pay taxes on dogs will be introduced. Under the law now in force there has been a lot of evasion and the amendment is designed to prevent this.

Councilman Dittoe has announced he will introduce a resolution asking the traction company to put on owl cars to run until 1 o'clock in the morning. An ordinance appropriating $1,200 to pay for the revision of the city ordinance will be introduced.

City Hall Notes.

Petitions for paving John street from Pontiac to Colerick, and Heustis avenue from Miner street to Fox avenue have been filed with the board of public works and taken under advisement. The appropriations for street and alley intersections will not permit of the paving of either unless some of the improvements ordered are defeated by remonstrance.

A communication has been sent by the board to the police department asking that patrolmen give special attention to the street lights and report those that are not burning.

LONG TIME EN ROUTE.

Mississippi Case Roaches Supreme Court After Twenty Years.

Washington, March 28.—Twenty years on the way the suit of Mary Scott Woods against A. M. Chesborough and others in Marion county, Mississippi, today reached the supreme court.

In 1891 a suit was brought in Marion county courts to determine the title to several parcels of land. The litigation was continued from term to term and finally a decree was issued in the case in 1896. The immediate object now sought is to have this decree revived. It will be two or three years yet before the supreme court will reach the case on its docket.

She is Mrs. Helen Hathaway Robison Britton, daughter of the late Frank De Haas Robison, brother of Stanley Robison. Three-fourths of the estate, including all the stock in the St. Louis club, goes to Mrs. Britton.

Fred N. Abercombie, of St. Louis, is named executor with Mrs. Britton and Mrs. Robison. He was associated with the deceased magnate in recent years and it is expected he will look after Mrs. Britton's baseball interests.

HALTS PRINCETON BEQUEST.

Colorado Man Wants Part of Mr. Wyman's $12,000,000.

Grand Junction, Col., March 28.—The twelve million dollar bequest to Princeton university of Isaac C. Wyman, who died about a year ago in Massachusetts, leaving his entire estate to Princeton, has been tied up in Colorado courts by the filing of a demand by W. S. Phillips that an administrator be appointed for the estate in Colorado. Phillips, who was a distant relative of Wyman, claims 103,400 is due him from the estate. He demands that this claim be settled before the estate is turned over to Princeton.

MOTHER OF NINETEEN.

Chicago, March 28.—The birth of her nineteenth child was recorded today in the Chicago health department by Mrs. John Adduci, wife of a laborer. She herself is only 29 years of age and of the nineteen children all of which were born singly, sixteen are still living.

DEPOT HELD OUT IN THE MEETING

Supt. Wardrop Says the Company is Ready to Proceed.

WILL LET CONTRACT

When Pennsylvania officials and representatives of the city met at the city hall this afternoon to take up the long dispute growing out of the proposed vacation of Chicago, Harrison, Webster and McClellan streets, and the relocation of Webster, Supt. William H. Wardrop was prepared to agree that as soon as a settlement is reached his company will let the contracts for the new depot on Baker street.

The company announced also that it was willing to make any concesssions in the matter of opening Webster street under its tracks and would be willing to take up the work now and would not stand on the clause heretofore demanded stipulating that this must be postponed for five years.

The company wants the work done under the present law which provides for a division of cost on a basis of seventy-five per cent. for the railroad company and twenty-five for the city. This is the sticking point. The city administration has insisted all along that it does not want to hamper future administrations by entering into any agreement on this point and wants to have the question left open so that the work can be done under any law in force at the time it is commenced.

This is covered specifically in the ultimatum delivered by the city not long ago, and officials say they have made as many concessions as they expect to make and that it is up to the company to come to an agreement on the terms cited.

Mr. Wardrop added that the general officers of the Pennsylvania company feel inclined to do more for Fort Wayne than any other city of its size for the reason it figured in naming the company that built the line and because a number of them have lived here and are interested in seeing the city advance.

MELODRAMA WAS TOO REALISTIC

Cincinnati Woman Commits Suicide After Witnessing Play.

LIFE STORY HER OWN

Cincinnati, March 28.—Because a melodrama which she had just witnessed and in which the heroine lacked the guidance of mother love, portrayed almost exactly her own life, Elizabeth Cook, twenty-one years of age, of Clearwater, Mich., known here as Mrs. Richard Muir, committed suicide early today. Muir is employed evenings and the woman therefore went to the theater alone. When she returned home she was in the throes of melancholia.

"I have just seen a sad show," she told Muir. "I never knew what it was to be without a mother until now; good-bye."

Grasping a bottle of carbolic acid she drained it before Muir could spring across the room to her side. She was unconscious when aid came and died in an ambulance.

"She told me that the play she had seen reminded her so much of her own life that she could not bear to live longer," said Muir today.

"She was an orphan and never knew who her mother was."

BUT HE CAN GO ELSEWHERE.

Decree Says Nat Goodwin Cannot Remarry in New York State.

New York, March 28.—An interlocutory decree of divorce in favor of Edna Goodrich Goodwin, the actress, from her husband, Nat C. Goodwin, the comedian, was signed today by Supreme Court Justice Giegerich. Miss Goodrich is given permission to marry again, but Mr. Goodwin is denied that permission during the life time of his former wife.

No alimony was asked by Mrs. Goodwin in her suit and the decree carries none. When they were married in 1909 a deed of trust was signed by the comedian conveying to Miss Goodrich property in San Francisco and Los Angeles said to be worth several hundred thousand dollars.

The decree acts as a bar upon Mr. Goodwin's remarriage in this state within his former wife's life time. The jurisdiction of the court granting the decree stops at the state boundaries.

SUIT TO COLLECT THE WARTELL FEE

Judge R. K. Erwin Files Action to Recover His Bill.

NEW JURY IS DRAWN

Another chapter was added to the Ben Wartell perjury case today when Harper & Eggeman filed, on behalf of Judge R. K. Erwin, a suit for $1,000 to recover his fee for defending Wartell in the circuit court.

The complaint does not set up specifically that the money demanded is the perjury case fee, but it is stated that the account covers legal services rendered during the months of February and March of this year.

Judge Erwin, assisted by Judge O. N. Heaton, made two attacks on the indictment in the case and when they failed to defeat it they succeeded in securing from Judge J. D. Merryman the suspension of a sentence of two to twenty-one years in the Michigan City prison. Wartell thinks the fee is excessive and has declined to pay it.

New Jury Selected.

In the drawing for a new superior court jury for the April term the following were selected: Wesley Watters, St. Joe township; Thomas Sheehan, John Battenberg, Monroe; H. F. W. Berning, Frederick Fry, Jacob Flaugh, Madison; John Denzel, jr., Thomas F. Behrmann, Adams; Charles Roberts, Scipio; Charles Blessing, Washington; William H. TURN LIGHT ON COAL INDUSTRY

Pennsylvania Legislature to Make Most Sweeping Investigation.

TO PROTECT PUBLIC

Harrisburg, Pa., March 28.—A sweeping legislative investigation of the anthracite coal industry in Pennsylvania is proposed in a concurrent resolution introduced today in the general assembly. The committee is empowered to inquire into the relations between mining and transportation companies and the banking houses said to be closely affiliated with them and which usually conduct their financial operations.

The supporters of the resolution have in view the enactment of laws for the protection of the public and the reduction of the cost of coal. The resolution which is understood to have the approval of the republican leaders, gives the committee power to investigate the matter of freight rates, it being alleged in the resolution that the rates for anthracite are much higher than those for bituminus coal.

The committee is also inquiring into the cost of operation of common carriers, engaged in the transportation of anthracite coal and of the cost of the mining it with a view to determine whether or not the cost of anthracite coal to the consumer is in any measure due to "usurious fees and commissions paid by transportation companies to private and other bankers who are in the directorate of or are closely affiliated with such transportation companies."

The cost of mining, the wages paid labor and other charges entering into the price paid for anthracite coal by the consumer "with a view of determining whether or not the cost to the public of anthracite coal for domestic and other purposes is reasonable and justified by existing conditions," is also to be investigated.

The committee to consists of seven members, is directed to sit during the recess and to report to the 1913 legislature.

SETS FIRE TO RESIDENCE.

Distracted Woman Then Attempts to Prevent Firemen From Entering.

Kokomo, Ind., March 28.—Mrs. Frank Stanley, thought to be distracted because of the death of her husband a week ago, set fire to her home in South Kokomo yesterday. Mrs. Lindley Hiatt, her sister, was in the house at the time, but the flames had gained much headway before discovered. Neighbors sent in a fire alarm but upon arrival the department encountered a complication, as Mrs. Stanley refused to allow them to enter the house. In the end the woman was persuaded to permit the firemen to enter and the flames were extinguished.

CONTINUE PROBE OF FIRE HORROR

WANT BETTER LAWS

New York, March 28.—Sifting down the great mass of testimony at their disposal, city and county officials hoped today to draw closer to the source of responsibility for Saturday's factory fire horror in which 142 persons lost their lives. Investigations started yesterday by Fire Marshal Beers and District Attorney Whitman were continued and in other official quarters to place the blame were kept up with undiminished vigor.

Added to the fifty funerals yesterday many more were held today. There remain twenty-nine bodies so badly burned that identification seems improbable.

Aside from the probe into the causes of the disaster undertaken with a view to bringing whoever is culpable to an accounting, architects and fire experts are engaged today in examination of existing fire laws with a view of legislation for prevention of further horrors.

WATERLOO HOLDS PLACE.

National Commission Decides It Can Remain in Three-I.

Cincinnati, O., March 28.—The National commission decided after due deliberation, that Waterloo, the club which recently enjoined the Three-I league from throwing it out, is entitled to stay in. At the same time it is decided that Waterloo and Dubuque must dismiss the court proceedings recently brought, thus placing themselves on a footing of good fellowship with the other teams.

The Three-I league is ordered to prepare a schedule with Waterloo included by April 5. If such schedule is not completed by that time the national committee will take the liberty of making one. The southern clubs of the Three-I according to this decision, must either play ball or become outlaws. Waterloo is thus victor in the struggle, which was one of the bitterest ever started among the minor leagues.

SOCIALISTS RUN STRONGER.

Four Out of Eight Win in Commission Primary at Wichita.

Wichita, Kas., March 28.—The full count today of votes cast in yesterday's primary election, under the commission form of government shows the socialist candidates to have run even stronger than was supposed at first. Eight candidates for commissioners were to be nominated, from whom four will be elected on Tuesday next. Four of the primary winners or half of the number are socialists.

In the race for nomination for mayor A. L. Blaze, socialist, had the highest vote, receiving 3,683 to the 3,052 for John H. Graham Blaze the nearest competitor. This means that Blaze and Graham alone will get their names on the ballot at the election. The feature of the primary campaign was the cry of the socialists and labor forces to "Milwaukeeize Wichita," meaning to introduce in the Kansas city the ideals of the present administration in the Wisconsin metropolis.

ATTACKS BUSCH WILL.

Widow Says Pact to Kill Herself Was Forced by Husband.

St. Louis, Mo., March 28.—Mrs. Ella Busch filed suit in the circuit court today to break the will of her husband, William Busch. In his will it was set forth that Mrs. Busch, who was a second wife had entered into a pact to kill herself when he died. He gave this as his reason for leaving her nothing in his will.

Mrs. Busch admits that there was an understanding that she would kill herself when her husband died, but says her husband compelled her at the point of a revolver to assent to the pact and that she had no intention of carrying it out. Busch's part of the agreement was that if his wife died first he was to kill himself.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

YOUNG YEGG TAKEN AT MUZZLE OF GUN

Sensational Capture of Burglar at LaOtto—Prisoner Not Yet of Age.

Laotto, Ind., March 28.—Stanley Juskin, a youthful yegg from Churcon, a suburb of Pittsburg, Pa., was caught in the act of one of the boldest daylight robberies ever reported in this section when he was captured in the home of Winfield Gorrell of this place, Sunday just after he had looted the residence and was preparing to get away with his botty, consisting of $15 in cash, a gold watch and chain and a fountain pen belonging to Mr. Gorrell. He is now in the county jail at Albion, where he is being held in default of $100 bond to wait trial in the circuit court upon a charge of grand larceny.

Juskin's capture was little short of sensational. While he was upstairs, young Charles Gorrell, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gorrell, came home from Sunday school and church, and hearing a noise, as if some one was rummaging about went up to see who was making the racket.

At first the boy thought possibly it was some other member of the family, but to his great surprise, when he entered a bedroom, he saw a strange man under the bed. Quickly as possible he retreated, but just then his father came in and before the intruder could get away, Mr. Gorrell ran upstairs with his shotgun and cornered the culprit. The fellow made no show of fight and was easily captured. He was then escorted to the office of Justice of the Peace Ira Young, where he was arraigned on a grand larceny charge and placed under bond. He was unable to furnish the required bond and was held pending the arrival of Sheriff P. J. Stanley and his deputy, who came in the afternoon about 3 o'clock and took the prisoner back to Albion.

When arraigned in court the prisoner made no effort to hide his guilt. He claimed to be 20 years of age and said he was on his way to Peru, where he expected to join the Wallace shows for the coming circus season.

PLAN NEW PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Lutheran Church of Kendallville Will Erect School and "Gym."

Kendallville, Ind., March 28.—According to information from Rev. Martin Kretzmann, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church in this city, the stewards and officers of the church are now considering the proposition of constructing a new up-to-date parochial school and gymnasium building on the site of the present school house. While no action has been taken, it is understood that the building is to be a two story brick structure, the first floor being for the school exclusively, and the second floor for a gymnasium. The gymnasium will be supplied with all the latest exercisers for the development of the body and there will probably be games of various kinds for members of the school and church to engage in. The gymnasium may also be used as an auditorium and meeting place for social enjoyment. The proposition will certainly meet the approval of the church members and will be appreciated by the young people.

USES CHAIR ON FATHER-IN-LAW

Huntington Man Now Rests in County Bastile as Result of Sunday Morning Scrap.

Huntington, Ind., March 28.—Charged with assault with intent to kill, Wilbur Wiles is confined in the county jail. His father-in-law, Noah Fosnaugh, preferred the charges following a squabble at the Fosnaugh home Sunday morning, which is said to have resulted in a broken finger for the older man. The finger was one which had previously been amputated at the second joint and the defense questions whether it was really broken.

According to the story related to the police by Fosnaugh, his son-in-law appeared at his home, on Byron street, Sunday morning and family troubles which had been brewing for some time caused a scrap. A vile name caused Fosnaugh to order the younger man from his home. The latter came back with a chair and his father-in-law was injured in defending himself. Charges were filed and Wiles gave himself up in the afternoon. The case goes direct to the circuit court.

The case was certified direct to the circuit court, the statute fixing the bond at $1,000. However, Judge Cook has reduced the amount of bond to $200. Wiles is making an effort to get someone to go on his bond, so that he will not have to remain in jail until his case is called up in court for hearing.

POSTOFFICE MAY NOT CLOSE.

Patrons in Favor of Office Remaining Open on Sundays.

Wabash, Ind., March 28.—According to a statement made by Postmaster L. A. Dawes, the Wabash postoffice may not be closed on Sundays. Mr. Dawes received a letter from the department this morning asking him to ascertain the sentiment of the patrons in regard to the move.

Mr. Dawes at once started out to make a canvas and he found that fully eighty per cent of the local patrons were opposed to the change. Consequently, he states, that in all probability, the same rules which now govern the office will continue effective. Although the change would relieve the six carriers of two hours' work every morning it would mean that at least one additional clerk would be necessary and that the other clerks would have to work longer.

DIES OF LINGERING ILLNESS.

Kendallville, Ind., March 28.—Russell Smith, only son of Mrs. Minnie Smith, died at his home, 515 Richmond street, yesterday morning at two o'clock, after a lingering illness of some time, aged 18 years. He was a well known and very popular young man and his death is a shock to his many friends.

Last summer he went to French, N. M., for his health, but returned early in the winter with no improvement. He was an industrious student in the Kendallville high school with a bright future before him, but during the past school year was unable to resume his work, owing to his illness. The funeral will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. W. H. Freshley, of the Evangelical church, officiating. Interment will be made in the Lake View cemetry.

Portland, Ind., March 28.—Miss Frances Bryson and Harry Detamore eloped to Covington, Kentucky, Sunday, where during the afternoon they were married. The following telegram was received by the parents of the young couple: "Were married this afternoon in Covington," and signed "Fritz and Harry." There was no objection to the marriage on either side but the novelty of the affair was an incentive for them to go to Kentucky. Thursday morning the bride left for Cincinnati, ostensibly to spend Sunday with a friend, Miss Frances Twombly, of West North street, this city, who is attending an art school in Cincinnati. Young Detamore joined her in Cincinnati, leaving on the Saturday morning train. The young couple returned to this city Monday where they will reside.

There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Dreier Drug Co.

The Beat of the Year

By Robert Livingston Beecher

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY THE PEARSON PUBLISHING CO.

"Certainly not," rejoined Bruce. "Don't you worry about me, either," he added, noting the look of uneasiness in his friend's eyes. "I'm all right. Wait and see."

He turned and entered the City Room. As he walked rapidly down between the rows of desks, a short, stout man who was reading the first page of the first edition looked up. Then he sprang to his feet.

"Well, here you are, are you?" he exclaimed, angrily. "What have you got to say for yourself?"

Bruce stopped. A hot reply was on his tongue but he crushed it down.

"I've been working on that story of ours, Mr. Connors," he said. "I struck a new clue. I wasn't sure where to get hold of you, so I followed it up myself. The afternoon was slipping by and I didn't think it would be for the paper's interest for me to wait. I'm sorry if I've offended you."

The older man glared.

"Well, of all the gall——" he began. Then he stopped short. "Well, what did it all amount to?" he added. "I guess I won't have to change my story much, will I? Have you seen it?"

Bruce could not for the life of him suppress a smile. The older man saw it and his anger flared up again.

"What are you laughing at?" he demanded, hotly.

Bruce sobered instantly.

"I beg your pardon," he said. "I'm afraid we'll have to have an entire new story."

The older man drew himself up.

"Is that so?" he said, stiffly. "Well, give me whatever new points you have and I'll work them into my story."

The younger man's face grew grave.

"I'm afraid I can't do that, Mr. Connors," he said, slowly. "What's yours is yours; what's mine is mine. I'm sorry, but I've got to stand on my own feet from now on."

He turned and continued on to the Night City Editor's desk. He knew that Connors had followed him. He knew that the copy-readers on both the city and the telegraph desks were looking curiously at him.

The city room had become very quiet. Down below the presses had ceased toil.

The Night City Editor laid down a blue pencil and looked up.

"Well," said he, gruffly, "where've you been all day? Mr. Connors says you threw him down."

Bruce felt himself, for an instant, the "cub" reporter of yore. Then he smiled.

"I've just told Mr. Connors how it happened," he said. "I struck a new clue and followed it up. We'll need a brand-new story."

"What's that?" said the Managing Editor, coming forward and sitting down beside his second in command. "What story's that, my boy?"

"The Newtown Creek thing," volunteered the Night City. "This boy went out to help Mr. Connors this noon and, contrary to strict orders, left the Long Island City police station about two o'clock and never reported till now."

The Managing Editor looked up at the young man standing beside the desk.

"It's too late to change that story much unless hell's broke loose," he said.

"It's broken," said Bruce.

"Well," exclaimed the Night City, sharply, "what've you got?"

Bruce bent down over the desk. The two editors leaned toward him. The nearest copyreaders on the city desk tried to look as if they were not listening.

"I believe I have found out who the murdered man was and who killed him," said Bruce, in a low voice. "The murdered man doesn't count for much. He was only an employee in a factory in Long Island City."

He paused.

"But the man who killed him is, I believe, the only son and heir of one of the richest men in this city."

The Night City Editor half rose from his chair. Then he sat down again. The Managing Editor looked squarely at the speaker.

"What's his name?" he asked, quietly.

Bruce leaned over closer to the two men and whispered a few words. When he had finished the editors turned and looked at each other. Bruce heard Connors give a little scornful laugh just behind him.

The Night Editor was the first to speak.

"What have you got to show that that's the man?" he asked.

Bruce took a heavy gold watch out of his pocket, opened the front case, pointed to some initials, and handed it to the Night Editor.

"A present from his father," he said.

The Managing Editor glanced at the initials, and then laid the watch down on the desk.

"Anything else?" he asked.

Bruce opened a silver-cornered leather wallet, took out some papers and documents, and laid them beside the watch. When each had been examined, the Managing Editor spoke.

"These seem genuine," he said, "but, of course, they're not enough. Where's the man himself? Has he been arrested?"

Bruce shook his head.

"Not exactly," he said.

"Not exactly!" repeated the Night City, his voice rising. "What do you mean by 'not exactly?'"

"The police haven't got him yet," replied Bruce, "but I have."

The Managing Editor looked up quickly.

"What's that?" he said. "You've got him? How's that?"

"I mean," said Bruce, "that I've got him under lock and key."

The Managing Editor brought his big fist down on the desk with a bang.

"Where, my son?" he exclaimed.

"Here," said Bruce.

"Hell!" roared the Managing Editor. "Where?"

Bruce tried hard not to smile. He was being repaid for the labors and dangers of the long day.

THE BATTLE FOR HEALTH.

The people of Fort Wayne will overlook an uncommon opportunity to promote a vast public benefit if they fail this week to enlist a proper interest in the health exhibit and lectures at Library hall. The project is in the purest sense public and benevolent. It is in the behalf of no one but the people of Fort Wayne who are invited and urged to make the most of it to their own account entirely without price.

Ignorance is the great propagator of disease. It does as it ever will matter little what science may discover as to endemic and epidemic diseases and the means of combatting them if the people among whom they rage refuse enlightenment and reject its law. The pestilences that yet scourge the Orient with appalling frequency and appalling mortality formerly so scourged Europe even into very modern if not recent times. Nor does all of Europe escape even in this day, for within the past three years Russia and Russian provinces have been swept by the besom of death. Cholera, which has thus wrought such havoc in Muscovite lands, and for a time concentrating upon the capital itself, can gain no foothold in Germany, in France, in Austria, in Great Britain or even in Italy. Modern science coupled with progressive government which makes public health of first concern, has robbed one time pestilence of its terrors, for cholera, black-death and other scourges that once desolated Europe as today they do Asia are smothered at the first sign. The reek of ignorance and the fog of superstition no longer envelope the rulers and the peoples of those lands. It is known that pestilence is not a visitation by an angry God but the consequence of transgressions of mankind against physical laws.

An epidemic of cholera in Germany would in this day be astounding though that nation through its seaports and its frontiers upon Russia is constantly exposed to gravest risks. Up to a generation ago the yellow fever scourge in the southern cities of the United States was regarded as of course. Today it is scarcely a menace. When the United States extinguished Spanish sovereignty in Cuba it extinguished worse than Spanish misrule. Havana and other Cuban cities, for centuries the hotbed of yellow fever, were subjected for the first time to the sharp rule of modern sanitary science. Within two years yellow fever had been extirpated. The great league of medical and sanitary science that under international auspices has waged war on yellow fever in the western hemisphere has vouchsafed to half the globe a practical security against one of the most terrible scourges humanity ever has known.

In place of a superstitious fatalism that looked for and unresistingly submitted to periodical sweeps of pestilent gales there is enlightenment and courage. Highly civilized mankind no longer submits itself to pestilence or seeks to flee from its ravages. Armored and armed by science it stays and fights and is victorious against what in times within the memory of men still living were thought to be inevitable and unconquerable plagues.

Older chronicles of pestilences that swept civilized Europe in a way that pales the awful ravages of China's pestilence today astound us and we marvel that it could be. Yet no pestilence that ever ravaged mankind in the western world has taken in any year such toll of dead as tuberculosis gathers each year from the most enlightened nations of the earth. Ten thousand deaths each year mark the ceaseless and desolating marches up and down and across and back of the Great White Plague in this commonwealth. Ten thousand preventable deaths, millions of unproductive money spent; a vast decrease in the human potentialities of the state; sorrow and regret, tears and mourning; broken circles of affection and poverty with its hardships imposed on the dependent and helpless—these make up an appaling total of the sacrifice heaped upon the altar of an indifference more cupable than the superstitution that bowed to the plagues that scattered death through darker ages because it is today indifference and not as then, ignorance, that is to blame.

There are living those will see the day in which it will be marveled that civilized mankind permitted the Great White Plague to ravage it. To hasten that day is one of the great purposes of the modern propaganda of public health. Health week in Fort Wayne is an important detail of the warfare now in progress. Do you enlist?

OPTION RESULTS ANOMALOUS.

Option elections under the new law continue to show mixed results. Tests so far have been made in communities that under the county unit law were "dry" and the total of the outcome has some anomalies. It is for instance surprising to find a considerable city like Warsaw confirming by an overwhelming majority the "dry" precedent of a former vote, while a few miles away a village of a few hundreds reverses it. And so the results come forth mixed in other counties—for example, in Noble, where Albion, the county seat, long ago made "dry" by remonstrance and continuing so by a county option verdict, reimposes the ban upon saloons, while a hamlet a few miles away in a purely rural township without a railway invites return of the licensed dramshop. These curious results no doubt will be multiplied as elections continue. In some instances they can be accounted for, in others they resist analysis. It is supposable in reason that communities onve voted "dry" but suffering the worst of the drink evil by reason of an unlawful traffic due to failure of law officers to do their duty, may recall the saloon in the hope that under the new regulative and restrictive measure it will prove the lesser of two evils. But this cannot be applied as a rule to the solution of all results. Nor does it hold, as formerly asserted, that rural communities can be depended on to vote "dry" and urban communities to vote "wet." Townships that in reopening their territory to a legalized traffic have nothing better to expect than a crossroads "dump" with all the worst evil and viciousness of the saloon concentrated and intensified within its dingy walls go to it sometimes with a decision that indicates they know what they want and what to expect, whereas cities that have the organized machinery of the law to enforce regulation and exact obedience are continuing their proscription of the saloon. In Marion, 25,000 population, and Kokomo, 15,000, essentially manufacturing cities, the face of the returns showed in each instance a "wet" majority of but a score or two and in each case the board of commissioners have refused to issue license on the ground that the majorities had been obtained by fraud at the ballot boxes. By the end of another week many more option elections will have been held, and perhaps less contradictory results will be shown.

The township with only hamlets and villages or even only crossroad sites for saloons appear in many cases more positive about wanting drinking places than larger and perhaps wiser communities. The village or crossroad saloon is bound to be the lowest type of the drinking place. It is almost inevitably filthy; it dispenses liquor that in corrosive power can make carbolic acid turn green; it is first and essentially a loafing place which cultivates chronic thriftlessness and shiftlessness in many who but for it occasionally might work; it is disorderly and pretty certain to be lawless because it never is under surveillance. The small town doggery in a very literal sense is a branch house of hell and its keeper usually as capable a deputy as Beelzebub could find or require.

Kansas generally starts things of that sort herself without waiting for models, patterns or samples. Resolving to "Milwaukeeize" herself—which seems to be a more or less lawless proposal in a state with constitutional prohibition—Wichita has gone socialistic by a majority that wipes out all ground of dispute and every pretext of demurrer. Not only will Wichita be "Milwaukeeized," but Milwaukee will be out-Milwaukeed. Wichita, be it remembered, is in and of Kansas.

New York resolves to see to it that no more human sacrifices in lots of one hundred and fifty are made to a matter of 1 or 2 per cent additional profit on loft building construction. The hope will generally be concerned in that New York's resolution will go faster and get farther along to realization than there is reason to expect.

A visit to the health show in Library hall will enlighten the visitor upon many things he has never even thought about and give him knowledge he will be very glad to possess once he has it.

President Diaz has a new cabinet and as soon as the new cabinet can get a new president Mexico will be ready to return to peace culture.

BUCK'S STOVE CASE SETTLED.

(Graham Taylor, in The Survey.)

The most amazing transformation scene ever brought about in American industrial warfare by a change of personal management is witnessed in the outcome of the prolonged, determined and bitterly contested issue between the Buck's Stove and Range company and the American Federation of labor. While the conflict raged, conciliation seemed as impossible to the outsider as was anything short of the annihilation of the other to each contestant. Yet no sooner had the management of this company passed on the death of the leader of the fight to the hands of his successor, than this apparently irrepressible conflict was found to be amenable to a settlement by the parties themselves, which is officially reported to have been "adjusted upon mutually honorable terms, satisfactorily to all concerned." The company's attorneys were at once withdrawn from the case against the federation pending before the United States supreme court, which thereupon threw it out of court as "a moot case." Former friends and foes straightway shifted their position to opposite sides in the fight.

"Minority stockholders" sought to restrain the company and the federation from carrying out their pact of peace under a claim for threefold damages of $750,000. The Federation of Labor, whose executive officers were still under suspended sentence for contempt of court in the alleged publication of the boycott against the company, recommended "that every legitimate effort be made to overcome the antagonism now being directed at the Buck Stove and Range company." These very officials, with their liberty still hanging in the balance, declared that this company, which had been their implacable foe, is now "entitled to the courtesy, consideration and patronage of all."

SAFETY OF RAILROAD TRAVEL.

(New York Herald.)

Not a single passenger out of 186,000,000 carried on the Pennsylvania railroad in 1910 was killed in a train accident. This is brought out in a report by the company, giving accident statistics for the years 1908, 1909 and 1910 for the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie, including the Pennsylvania railroad proper, the Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington, the Northern Central railway, the Cumberland Valley, the Maryland, Delaware & Virginia railway, the Baltimore Chesapeake & Atlantic railway, the West Jersey and the Long Island railroad.

Combining the statistics for 1908, 1909 and 1910, it is shown that in that time the number of passengers carried on the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie was 371,558,277—more than four times as many persons as there are in the United States, and only one of them was killed as a result of a train wreck.

A TREE A CENTURY OLD MOVED.

Country Estates Beautified With Great Monarchs of the Forest.

(Brooklyn Eagle.)

One of the largest and oldest trees ever moved in this country was transported a distance of five miles and successfully transplanted. This was a holly tree, which for over a century had grown at North Sea.

Country estates by the seashore are being beautified with the great trees of the forest, many of which are twenty-five to fifty years old. Newbold Edgar, A. B. Boardman and G. Warrington Curtis, summer residents of Southhampton, have had a large number of trees transplanted upon their property, gaining in certain instances a half century to a century in growth by the method employed.

A huge, specially constructed steel truck is used to carry the trees, which are taken up with a great mass of roots imbedded in the earth that originally surrounded the tree. Earth and roots are packed in burlap and thus deposited intact and with undisturbed growth in their new location.

A Wonderful House Cleaner For 25 Cents

Is the latest invention of Dr. Young, the sanitary expert. Housewives are just going wild over it. The first day this little article was offered for sale in this city, women who saw it demonstrated were so eager to get one, that the clerks could not wait on them fast enough.

Young's Dust Absorbent Cloth, which is chemically treated, is a wonderful success, because it positively picks up and holds every speck of dust and dirt it comes in contact with. By using this article once a week, your house will be much cleaner than if you used the ordinary duster or rag every day; and not only that, but you actually get rid of the dust and dirt instead of scattering it without even soiling your hands.

Young's Dust Absorbent Cloth will dust anything, and gives a high polish to furniture and pianos without leaving one scratch. It will also clean silk, velvet, derby hats, windows and glassware without leaving any lint. It will last three or four months and only costs 25c. Broom Cover for cleaning floors, walls and ceilings, made of the same material as the duster, with a 4-ply base, 35c. Imitations are inferior and will not give satisfaction, but the original will, and is known by our star, name and guarantee. A. M. YOUNG & CO., 27 Illinois St., Chicago.

WARSAW DRY BY 371 MAJORITY

HEAVY VOTE POLLED

OPTION RESULTS MONDAY.

	Wet.	Dry.
Albion	...	23
Sparta Township	...	88
Ligonier	111	..
Noble Township	18	..

Kosciusko County.

	Wet.	Dry.
Warsaw	..	371
Etna Green	..	44
Syracuse	..	31
Milford	15	...
Pierceton	64	...

Warsaw, Ind., March 28.—A victory for the "drys" was the result of the local option election held in Kosciusko county yesterday. The vote was taken in the city of Warsaw and in the thirteen townships, and in only two of the latter were the "wets" able to show a majority, Milford and Pierceton going "wet" by majorities of 15 and 64, respectively.

Mentone, Burkett, Silver Lake and all other of the fourteen units gave dry majorities.

In this city gains were made over the vote of two years ago. A heavy vote was polled, the result being a majority of 371, as against 333 at the last election. At a late hour last night figures were obtainable from but five of the fourteen units in the county holding elections, but it was conceded that with the two exceptions noted all voted "dry."

End Vigorous Campaign.

The "drys" ended a vigorous campaign Sunday with the preaching of temperance sermons in nearly every church in this city as well as in the country churches. The "wets" pursued a gum-shoe policy and early in the day expressed confidence that at least half the townships would vote in their favor, and some even went so far as to predict that the heavy majority of 333 for the "drys" in this city two years ago would be overcome.

In this city both sides got their vote out early, but in the country districts the voting was slow, the majority being cast after the noon hour.

LIGONIER WET; ALBION DRY.

Mixed Result Shown in Noble County Option Elections.

Albion, Ind., March 28.—With a very heavy vote polled in the local option elections in Noble county yesterday comes a mixed result. Ligonier gave a wet majority of 111, and Noble township, in which the village of Wolf Lake is located, returned a wet majority of 18 votes.

The town of Albion voted by a majority of 23 to remain in the dry column. Sparta township, containing the towns of Cromwell and Kimmell, also gave a dry majority of 88. The results, save in Noble township, were about as had been forecasted for some days. In Albion the fight was especially vigorous, the total vote practically equalling that cast at the last general election.

"I want you to find my trousers," he said.

"Did you look under the mattress?" asked the telephone clerk in the chief's office.

"No," said Newman.

"Give me the description," he said.

"All right. The number on the case is 5574569 and the number on the works is 5133475.

"What are you talking about, anyway?"

"My watch."

"I thought it was your trousers."

"Yes, the watch was in the trousers pocket. A beggar called here and asked me to give him a pair of trousers. I did. After he was gone I discovered I gave him the ones with my watch in them. Find that beggar, will you?"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Mr. N. E. Stockbridge is reading law and assisting in his father's store in the city.

August Becker, the Fairfield avenue grocer, is erecting a fine residence on West Williams street.

Barney Kramer will probably discontinue the merchant tailor business when his duties as assessor begin.

The Rev. D. Duehmig, of Avilla, has a German bible printed by Anthony Koburger, of Nuremberg, Bavaria, in 1482.

The aveline house guests were treated to an elegant fish dinner yesterday. The catch was made by J. M. Moritz, at Rome City.

Mr. L. O. Hull, who returned Friday from a trip to a number of western cities, says he did not see one place he would rather live in than Fort Wayne.

The many friends of Prof. Addis Albro, formerly professor in the Fort Wayne college, will be pleased to learn that he has been elected president of Lewis college, Glasgow, Mo.

The St. Joe Rowing club is now thoroughly organized, with Fred Miller, of Muncie, for first oar or stroke; Peter Henkenius, second oar; Charles Prince, third oar, and Capt. Charles Wolf, fourth oar.

Mr. Will Eckert celebrated the twenty-second anniversary of his birth yesterday, and a brilliant gathering of his friends occurred at his father's residence last night. The fragrant "39" was consumed to his health.

Dr. Charles Schmitz, who owns the buildings on the west side of Calhoun street just north of Washington, was asked to sell forty feet of his property today, but replied that it was not for sale. He values the ground at $1,000 a foot and intends to keep it in the family.

THEY ARE HERE "IN HIS NAME"

State Convention of King's Daughters and Sons Begins This Evening.

THREE DAYS' SESSION

Coming "In His Name," which is the motto of the order, and with hearts afire for the doing of philanthropic work, delegates from many cities and towns of the state arrived in the city today to attend the seventh annual state convention of the Indiana branch of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons, which begins a three days' session at the Wayne street M. E. church this evening at 8 o'clock.

MISS MARGARET S. VESEY,

Miss Nellie Filbeck and Miss Clara E. Locke, of Terre Haute, the state secretary and the recording secretary, respectively, of the Indiana branch, arrived Monday afternoon. Other members of the state executive board and most of the delegates arrived today, Terre Haute sending the largest delegation. All the out-of-town delegates are guests at the homes of the Fort Wayne members of the order.

Terre Haute sends the largest delegation. It is the strongest city in the state of the order. Indianapolis comes next, with Fort Wayne ranking as third. Anderson, Connersville, Evansville, Ligonier, Logansport, Madison, Muncie and Wabash are largely represented.

The enrollment of delegates began this afternoon at the convention church, from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the executive board met in the church parlors at 4:15 o'clock to complete preliminaries for the convention and the transaction of other business pertaining to the order.

Reception to Delegates.

The reception to the delegates will be extended this evening, the exercises taking place at the Wayne Street M. E. church. The program includes an organ prelude by Miss Arlinger, devotional service conducted by Rev. C. Claude Travis, and a solo sung by Miss Kay Spencer. The convention will be called to order by Miss Nellie Filbeck, of Terre Haute, who is the state secretary.

The addresses of welcome will be delivered by Mrs. Jessie C. Calvin, the chairman of the city union of the King's Daughters, and the response by Mrs. John Conn, of Evansville. The greetings from the central council members will be extended by Mrs. C. B. Whitney and greetings from the state officers by Miss Margaret S. Vesey and Miss Rose Farrington. Following this will be the reading of letters and telegrams by the recording secretary, Miss Clara E. Locke, of Terre Haute, and the address of the evening by Mrs. C. B. Whitney, of Detroit, on the "Story of the Order."

Tomorrow's Program.

The convention Wednesday begins at 9:30 o'clock a. m. The program includes reports of state officers and talks made by prominent delegates from each of the cities. Wednesday evening there will be an address at convention church by Mrs. Whitney, of Detroit. The program will continue Thursday, the convention adjourned late that afternoon. The convention on Thursday will hold its annual election of officers. On that day the next meeting city will also be selected.

EDITOR BROWNE

Of the Rockford Morning Star.

"About seven years ago I ceased drinking coffee to give your Postum a trial.

"I had suffered acutely from various forms of indigestion and my stomach had become so disordered as to repel almost every sort of substantial food. My general health was bad. At close intervals I would suffer severe attacks which confined me in bed for a week or more. Soon after changing from coffee to Postum the indigestion abated, and in a short time ceased entirely. I have continued the daily use of your excellent Food Drink and assure you most cordially that I am indebted to you for the relief it has brought me.

"Wishing you a continued success, I am Yours very truly,

"J. Stanley Browne,
"Managing Editor."

Of course, when a man's health shows he can stand coffee without trouble, let him drink it, but most highly organized brain-workers simply cannot.

The drugs natural to the coffee berry affect the stomach and other organs and thence to the complex nervous system, throwing it out of balance and producing disorders in various parts of the body. Keep up this daily poisoning and serious disease generally supervenes. So when man or woman finds that coffee is a smooth, but deadly enemy, and health is of any value at all, there is but one road—quit.

It is easy to find out if coffee be the cause of the troubles, for if left off 10 days and Postum be used in its place and the sick and diseased conditions begin to disappear, the proof is unanswerable.

Postum is not good if made by short boiling. It must be boiled full 15 minutes after boiling begins, when the crisp flavor and the food elements are brought out of the grains and the beverage is ready to fulfill its mission of palatable comfort and renewing the cells and nerve centers broken down by coffee.

CHINESE VICEROY APPROVES PLAN FOR FAMINE RELIEF.

CHANG JEN-CHUN.

Chan Jen Chun, viceroy at Nankin, received in audience Mrs. Jane Douglas Champlin, of Washington, and gave his approval to her plan for an issue of famine stamps. He also promised to personally write Chinese scrolls to be auctioned in America in aid of the famine sufferers.

Needed It.

In the Yakima valley, Washington, where the big apples are grown and bearing orchards sell at $1,000 an acre, rain is scarce. Irrigation is practiced everywhere. But now and then during the growing season a light rain will fall for a few minutes. These rains are highly prized, for irrigating water is measured closely and served to each user in proportion to his acreage.

Last summer a fruit grower who owns forty acres of orchard was rejoicing in one of these precipitations of moisture when one of his hired men entered the house.

"Why don't you stay in out of the rain?" inquired the fruit grower.

"Oh, that's all right," replied the man. "A little dew like that doesn't bother me a bit. I can work right along just the same."

"That isn't the point!" exclaimed the rancher. "Next time it rains you come into the house. I want that water on the land."—Youth's Companion.

Not For Willie.

A countrywoman and her little boy were visiting the city and while seeing the sights of the place the mother's eyes were attracted by the showy display of stuffed animals in a taxidermist's shop window.

"Let's go in here and see what we can get for you, Willie," said the mother.

"Sure, ma, and"— His eye fell upon a sign over the door which read, "Let us tan your hides."

"Oh, no, ma. Let's don't go in there. I get 'nuff of that at home," he cried excitedly, and they passed up the taxidermist's shop.—National Monthly.

night. Preceding the address of Dr. Evans this evening, Prof. Barnard will discuss "Food Adulteration and Legislation."

A disagreeable storm prevailing at that hour made it impossible for school children to reach Library hall Monday afternoon for Dr. Hurty's address to them, scheduled for 4:30 o'clock, and this address was postponed until Wednesday afternoon at 4:30. Dr. Hurty speaks at Bluffton tonight and will return to Fort Wayne Wednesday.

DR. WILLIAM A. EVANS,
Chicago Health Commissioner on Fort Wayne Program Tonight.

Must Live Sanitary Life.

Dr. Hurty used as an introduction for his lecture the following statements:

"For long life we must honor our parents. We must follow the rules of hygienic nature. Too many people die unnecessarily because they are indulgent in early life. As we give all for life we must learn to live the sanitary life. In early age we lay the foundations for old age so we all ought to learn the anti-tuberculosis life." The lecturer used as an example in his introduction, the speech of Adam to Orlando in Shakespeare's "As You Like It."

The first pictures thrown on the screen were the likenesses of the world-famed doctors, who have done so much to prevent disease—Cherevuel, Pasteur, Newton and Koch. Dr. Robert Koch was the man who discovered the method that is now used in preventing consumption. After a short talk on these noted physicians Dr. Hurty began the lecture on the awful white plague. Charts and real photographic slides were used in explaning the nature of tuberculosis. Pictures of badly built school rooms, unsanitary alley ways, tenement rooming houses, mouth-breathing children and many other similar conditions were introduced to show how the disease is started. The doctor dwelt at some length on the disease-carrying common house fly and its methods of spreading tuberculosis. The open air sleeping plan was explained by the speaker, who is a very firm advocate of that method of curing and preventing the disease. Dr. Hurty was once threatened by the white plague and he can talk on the disease as very few other men can.

Havoc of White Plague.

After covering his subject in a very thorough manner by the use of the views the speaker concluded his talk in an impressive manner with the following sentences:

"In 1904 nearly 5,000 deaths resulted from consumption in this state. Of these deaths 70 per cent were confined to the feminine sex. That was for the reason that women and girls are not in the open air as much as men. The plague of China is nothing compared to the white plague of this country although it is much swifter. It takes from three to five years to catch consumption and from three to five years to die with it so you can plainly see it is nothing more than slow poison. The disease is not hereditary but it is extremely infectious. Tuberculosis kills more youths and maidens than elder people. Our people die of this disease because they are ignorant of it and the aim of the state society is the teaching of the methods and preventives of this terrible malady. We must get at the sources—bad milk, beef, flies and close rooms. To guard against all of these enemies we must improve sanitary conditions, live in the pure air, eat nothing but plain food, refrain from indulgences, be regular in our habits and abide by Lewis Pasteur's rule, 'Cheerish the sunshine and live the simple life.'"

The Work of Women

"Women's Work in Home Economics and Pure Food" was the subject of the talk delivered by Prof. H. E. Barnard before the meeting at Library hall this afternoon. Prof. Barnard stayed as far as possible away from a lecture. His points were all brought out in the form of an informal talk and discussion.

The sanitary problems were the ones that the speaker laid most stress on and all the listeners were able to get valuable advice from the discussion. Milk cans, dishes, refrigerators, stoves and plumbing were topics that touched the interest of all the housewives and Mr. Barnard covered these topics in a thorough manner. Buying of supplies was another subject that the speaker emphasized. He insisted that every woman should investigate the source of her table supplies. If a grocer employs dirty or unhealthy help the house wife should withdraw her patronage. If a butcher sends meat by a dirty delivery boy, the purchaser should send it back and buy elsewhere.

Prof. Barnard during the course of his lecture said: "It is up to the women of the cities to make the grocers and butchers law effective. When all the housewives wake up to the facts and conditions we will see a big change in the present methods. We depend on the women to put the unlawful merchants out of business. It must be a "survival of the fittest."

Before the talk Prof. Barnard and F. W. Tucker, deputy food and drug inspector, accompanied by five or six of the representative ladies of the city, made a tour of groceries, meat markets, restaurant kitchens and hotel kitchens of the down town district and gathered some valuable information concerning the methods used in this city. The inspectors were well pleased with the results of the investigations and Prof. Barnard referred to the practices employed in the city in his talk to the ladies this afternoon.

Place a Busy Scene.

Library hall is the [illegible] in the city this week. Several [illegible] of the great anti-tuberculosis army are maneuvering there and plans are being drawn up for the big battle that will soon be fought against the white plague in this portion of the state. Fresh supplies of ammunition are arriving every day and the camping ground is rapidly taking on a business like appearance.

The first thing that greets the eye of the visitor as he walks into the vast assembly room is the unbroken line of huge posters that circles the room. Between seventy-five and a hundred of these posters are strung on the walls and each poster bears a sentence or two of valuable advice. About a score of large banners are hung above the posters. These banners are not exactly works of art but they create an impression that will not be easily forgotten, in fact they cannot fail to produce the right results.

One long counter is strewn with actual photographs of tuberculosis sufferers and similar subjects. Adjoining this counter is a case bearing specimens of diseased organs preserved in alcohol, also the latest appliances used in the modern hospitals to combat the dread disease. Two miniature outdoor sleeping chambers are set up on the floor and a demonstrator is present to explain the advantages of these two particular types.

Drug and Food Exhibit.

The drug and food exhibit is under the charge of F. W. Tucker, deputy state drug and food inspector, and this exhibit is worth the attention of everyone visiting the hall. Mr. Tucker received a supply of infected meat from Indianapolis today and this supply added to the already large amount makes a very interesting study. Two large ice boxes contain the diseased flesh and the normal specimens are arranged on small tables around the wall. One large counter contains specimens of impure maple syrup, preserves, jelly and spices.

Dr. Crull, secretary of the city health board, has been a keen worker in making the health show a success and when interviewed today he stated that he was well pleased by the interest taken in the local movement. He said that he expected a large supply of double cross buttons this evening and that his aim was to get as many people as possible to wear these badges.

CARD TO BUSINESS MEN.

To the Fort Wayne Sentinel:

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the State Board of Health, will give a talk at Library hall on the "Money Value of Health." Dr. Hurty has planned the subject matter of this talk mainly for the benefit of business men, and his other title for this same paper is "A Matter of Big Business." This lecture will be illustrated partially, and in it Dr. Hurty will try to prove to the business men, as well as to the public spirited men, that promotion of health, prevention of disease, reduction of contagious diseases and mortality is a distinct and positive business asset, and that the business man can make no investment which will return to him greater dividends in actual cash than his participation in efforts to fight and eliminate tuberculosis.

I believe that talks of this kind should interest every business man in Fort Wayne. This is absolutely a business proposition. I trust that Dr. Hurty may have in his audience every member of the Commercial club, for, I am told, this talk will be largely for them. Respectfully,

CHAS. S. BIEDERWOLF,
Secretary Commercial Club of Fort Wayne.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire in this manner to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors, members of Fort Wayne council Knights of Columbus No. 451; St. Mary's Aloysius Young Men's society, Tribe of Ben Hur court No. 15 and Knights of Maccabees, Wayne tent No. 54, for the kindness and assistance shown us in our present bereavement, the death of our son and brother, Francis M. ...g OF INTEREST TO SCHOOLGIRLS

BY MRS. JANE FORD.

3 SIZES 14-16-18 YEARS

In spite of the hours that must be given to study, where is the school girl who at this season of the year does not find time to consider clothes? After the dark worsted frocks of the winter, it is delightful to see the pretty colored cottons and linens. A visit to the shops and the most staid of us will be stirred by what we there see displayed.

Let me here say to mothers, as I have said before in other articles, that the young girl should be encouraged in any desire she may have to select her own clothes. The average girl's love of dress is quite natural and she should not be criticised for it, as it is every woman's duty to look her best. However, she should be carefully directed, so that she will learn to exercise good taste and judgment in making selections.

Should one lack the good fortune to have been born with an eye for the beautiful, it is perfectly wonderful to what extent good taste can be cultivated. "Good taste" embraces a great deal, but let us remember that the keynote is becomingness and appropriateness. If you will bear this in mind you will always select becoming colors and styles, regardless of whether they be the very latest fashion. Indeed, it is very poor taste to select extreme styles. To wear clothes inappropriate to the occasion is an error, I am glad to say, not committed by many of our American girls. Clothes should never be overelaborated. They should be neatly made and carefully adjusted. Look at some girl whom you consider especially well dressed, and you will find that these are matters given by her the closest attention. Striking contrasts should be avoided in trimming and soft tones selected that blend. If you are not sure of the proper combination of colors and shades, until the eye has been cultivated, it may be better to stick to one tone.

By the well dressed special attention is given to the neck and sleeve finish. When white is worn it must be immaculate, as therein consists its beauty. It is better for wear in warm weather to have inexpensive materials that launder nicely and can thus be kept fresh and clean and dainty looking, than to choose the more expensive fabrics that must be sent to a cleaner to be freshened. The latter are costly and unsatisfactory, if the dresses are for general wear.

The simple little frock shown in the drawing can be carried out most effectively and is sure to prove becoming. To copy it in the sixteen-year size it requires four and seven-eighths yards of goods thirty-six inches wide, with one and three-eighths yards of contrasting goods twenty-four inches wide for trimming.

WILL PLOUGH CENTRAL PARK.

"It is many years since a plow has been seen ripping up the lawns of Central park, but in view of the impoverished condition of the soil we as considering the advisability of plowing the lawns this spring and reseeding with grass," an officer of the park department said.

"The continued fertility of the park soil is to a great extent sacrificed to the desire to preserve artificial beauty. If we could allow the fallen leaves to remain on the ground instead of raking them up for the appearance of neatness we would have a humus that would be invaluable in preserving fertility. Resoiling the park is only a temporary relief under present conditions. The new soil will be nearly starved to death in a few years because we cannot give it the food nature demands. The too frequent cutting of the grass helps to exhaust the soil."—New York Sun.

Russian Symphony Orchestra.

Gives Concert of Remarkable Beauty at Majestic Last Night.

Rather perfunctory applause greeted Modest Altschuler and the Russian symphony orchestra at the rising of the curtain on this famous body of musicians at the Majestic theater last evening. But how different a recognition of the musicians was given as with a swift motion of his baton Mr. Altschuler brought to a close a remarkably beautiful reading of Ambroise Thomas' overture to the opera of "Mignon." It was given with such unexpected beauty, both in the reading and in tone, and with a combination of dignity and impressive expression, that the audience broke into a storm of applause, compelling Mr. Altschuler to bow again and again his gratification at his reception. Immediately following was the Tschaikowsky symphony ..o. 4, in F minor. This wonderful composition was written by Tschaikowsky in the winter of '76 and '77 and is regarded as one of the greatest works of that writer, who is considered by many as the greatest composer Russia ever produced. The orchestra played it as if they loved it and certainly Modest Altschuler led them as if he might have heard the composer himself direct it time and again. Of remarkable tonal beauty of theme and of accompaniment are the second and third movements. The melody is introduced by the oboes, then taken up afterwards by the violins, cellos and the woodwinds and horns accompany softly with basses completing the harmony. With the addition of the strings the harmony thickens until there is a great crescendo into a climax that fairly takes away the breath of the listener. The flutes and clarionets attracted notice and wonderful chords among the brasses led to the dramatic outburst. The scherzo movement, with the lovely introduction of twitched strings, was a distinctive feature of the rendition of the symphony. In the closing symphony, the "Overture 1812," there was the further inspiration of the historic significance which the composer has given so vivid a musical description. The introduction of the "Marsellaise" in the midst of the furore of battle, the chimes of bells, the boom of cannon, the sadness of retreat and the wild tumult of joy as the strains of Russia's national hymn burst forth in almost solemn grandeur were as apparently felt by the members of the orchestra as if they were living them. The imagination of the audience quickened under the influence of the music and in spite of having listened for more than two hours to the program, people were inclined to insist on another number. It was a concert of which but a general impression of its wealth of beauty can be expressed. The selection from Wagner's Good Friday music from "Parsifal" was the only selection not by a Russian composer. A berceuse by Ilyinsky and "Dance of the Fairy Dolls," by Tschaikowsky, which was repeated, thus making the only encore allowed on the program, were the other numbers by the orchestra aside from accompaniments to soloists. It is doubtful if any orchestra has made a more vivid impression or so instantly won more ardent expression of praise than the Russian symphony and Conductor Modest Altschuler.

The interest of the audience concerning other performers of the evening centered quite naturally in this city's young and greatly talented pianist, Mrs. Florence Huebner-Dukes, who played a Hungarian fantasie by Liszt with the orchestra. This was Mrs. Dukes' second appearance here with an orchestra, the first time being about a year ago. It was quite evident last night that this gifted young woman has gained in many ways since then. There was evidence of greater physical strength and more intellectual poise. Her tone was brilliant and powerful. Her runs were clear and smooth and her attacks never blurred. With such elements of good musicianship was an absolute certainty of herself and of the work she was playing, things which promise a great future for one so talented and ambitious. Mrs. Dukes received applause of such insistence and enthusiasm that she responded with an encore. Solo honors were shared by Frank Ormsby, tenor, of New York, whose splendid voice and artistic and dramatic temperament found expression in an aria from "Aida." Mr. Ormsby was also tenor in a quartet of voices including Mme. Nina Dimitrieff, soprano; Lealia Joel-Hulse, contralto, and Bertram Schwahn, baritone, who much to the disappointment of everyone, sang but once.

The orchestra came here under the auspices of the Morning Musical society and was the last of the series of artist recitals for the season given by that organization to its members. The society deserves high praise, not alone from its members, but from the public, for the opportunities which come every season to hear some of the best the musical world can afford. The willingness of the officers and program committee to assume the responsibility of bringing such organizations of the highest artistry, musically speaking, as the Russian orchestra, deserves the admiration and appreciation of the musical community.

THE AMERICAN BORN PRINCESS.

My father, Prince Napoleon Lucien Charles, was in exile in the United States, and so it happened that I was born in America, on the borders of the Delaware. I came into the world with the last sigh of the old year, that is to say at midnight on the 31st of December, 1833. I have said that my father was in exile. When he was 11 years old his mother left Naples with her four children—two boys and two girls—and retired to the Chateau de Frohsdorff, taking the title of Comtesse de Lipona—Napoli transposed. There my father lived till he was joined by his uncle, the Emperor Napoleon's eldest brother, King Joseph, of Spain, who on the fall of the first empire had retired to the United States and taken a lovely place near Bordentown, N. J., where he lived for eleven years as Count de Survilliers.

It was at Bordentown that I entered this sorry world, my father having in 1821 married a Miss Carolina Georgiana Fraser, of Scotch origin, descending from the old family of Lovat.—Princess Caroline Murat's Memoirs.

NIGHTCAP STORIES

THE FOUR BRAVE FAIRIES.

One night Fairy Queen was giving a party, a lovely, lovely party. All at once there was a terrible noise. Three times again the same noise came, until at last Fairy Queen said it must be stopped and she called on four of her brave fairykins to stop it.

Pretty soon the fairies came to a great flat plain, where they could see a long way. And there they saw indeed what made the noise—the two great Giants Limberleggoro and Timbersoesky fighting. The way they fought was mostly by throwing mountains at each other—so now you know what made the noise.

So did the Fairies—but how to stop it they didn't know. So they crept back into the woods to make a plan. After much thinking they hit upon a plan.

"We will attack them from all sides at once," said one, "each one shouting and banging his sword on his shield and making all the noise he can. The giants will then think an army is coming against them and they will be frightened and run away."

After dodging a number of flying mountains the brave fairykins began the attack. Just at this moment Limberleggoro threw a very large mountain which struck Timbersoesky on the nose and knocked him down. This seemed such a good joke to the two of them—for they were good-natured old chaps and only fought because there wasn't anything else to do that morning—such a good joke that they both burst out laughing. After which off they went arm in arm, and that was the end of them.

The four brave fairkins fully believed that they had driven the enemy away—which is no more than many little people do when big things happen. So back they marched in triumph and reported the great victory to Fairy Queen. As the noise certainly stopped, Fairy Queen in her turn was much delighted, and as she had promised them all the Grand Cross of the Order of Thistledown.

Bath Buns.

Dissolve one-half cake of compressed yeast in one-quarter cupful of warm water. Add one scant teaspoonful of salt and one cupful of milk and mix to a dough with one pound of sifted flour. Knead and let stand until light. Work in four well beaten eggs and four ounces of melted butter, cover and set aside until risen a second time. Mold into balls a little larger than an egg, press into the top of each some currants and shreds of candied orange peel; arrange a half an inch apart on greased pans and let stand in a warm place until light. Brush the tops with warm water, sprinkle thickly with granulated sugar and bake in a moderate oven about three-quarters of an hour.

Date Pudding.

Beat one egg without separating it until light, add to it a little over a gill of milk, an ounce of butter, melted with two tablespoonfuls of water; add sufficient flour, about one cupful to make a thick batter. The flour should have sifted with it one teaspoonful of baking powder. Stone the dates and chop them into small pieces, dust them thickly with flower, stir them into the pudding, turn into a grease mold and steam one and a quarter hours.

FREIGHT RATE INQUIRY NEXT

Indiana Rail Commission to Investigate the Situation.

UNDER NEW POWERS

Indianapolis, Ind., March 28.—As soon as practicable after the issuance of the governor's proclamation declaring the acts of the recent session of the general assembly to be in force the railroad commission will start a general inquiry, under the new powers of the commission, into railway freight rates in the state, with a view to establishing uniformity on like freight classes. Whether the inquiry will be made as a reopening of the old inquiry along this line, known in commission annals as "Case No. 161," or whether a new case will be introduced, has not been determined. The commission began an inquiry into the question last fall, but delayed its completion because of the movement among all the railroads of the country to increase rates. Had these proposed rates gone into effect they would have brought about much uniformity.

The interstate commerce commission, however, denied the right to increase rates as was proposed, leaving the rates in Indiana in their former state of non-uniformity.

Shippers Will Assist.

It is expected that the railroad commission will again be assisted in its inquiry into the rates by the Manufacturers and Shippers' association and by the Indianapolis freight bureau, both of which organizations assisted in the former inquiries. It was said that the hearing in the case of the Manufacturers and Shippers' association against the coal hauling roads, to set aside the increase on factory coal into the gas belt from the Indiana coal fields, might be made the basis for the general inquiry. It is possible, however, that the commission will disregard all the pending cases, and, under new powers, conferred by new legislation, make the inquiry on its own initiative.

In the annual report of the commission, just filed with the governor, the effort to bring about uniform freight rates is discussed at length, and the proposed inquiry is outlined. The report was made to December 31, 1910, and the outline was made tentative, pending the passage of the laws that were asked for by the commission, all of which laws were obtained, as far as rate adjustments are concerned.

Work of Inspection Department.

The report of the commission contains some interesting data concerning the combined work of the commission and the inspection department. In the year, 1,154 cases were handled. Of these, 540 defects were remedied without recourse to formal action by the commission, 210 were closed and 404 were pending at the end of the year.

Sixty-one penalty suits were filed in the year, for alleged violation of the safety appliance act. The defendants and the number of cases filed against each were as follows: Baltimore & Ohio, 4; Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, 4; Big Four, 4; Monon, 4; Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville, 3; Central Indiana, 1; Cincinnati, Bluffton & Chicago, 2; Chicago & Wabash Valley, 2; C., H. & D., 1; Evansville & Terre Haute, 5; Ferdinand, 2; Grand Rapids & Indiana, 1; Indianapolis Union, 1; Louisville & Nashville, 1; Lake Erie & Western, 2; Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 4; Pennsylvania, 7; Southern, 9; Southern Indiana, 1; Clover Leaf, 1; Wabash, 2.

Shippers Show Interest.

In the year 2,613 accidents were reported to the commission, and of these, 254 were investigated by the inspection department. Considerable attention was given to orders and recommendations, with the results of investigations of the trolley wrecks of the latter part of the year, all of which had previously been made public.

The report further shows an increased interest in the tariff department of the commission, on the part of shippers. The department is now looked on as the source of official information concerning rates, and many shippers are using it.

The commission has planned an inspection of freight headquarters in the cities where large freight consignments originate, with a view of determining the conditions concerning posted rates, methods of giving out tariff information, treatment of shippers, etc.

PRINCE HENRY TELLS OF FLYING

Shaken and Humble Like Any Other Mortal After the First Flight.

(Philadelphia Ledger.)

Prince Henry, of Russia, the German emperor's brother, has been describing the sensations he experienced while qualifying as an aeroplane pilot—at least no doubt is entertained that the initials "P. H." attached to an article in the Berliner Allgemeine Automobilzeitung stand for his signature.

Having told his instructor that he felt himself prepared to make an attempt to fly alone, he writes:

"Had I suspected what internal conflicts I had yet to overcome (I am 48 years old and have a wife and children) I believe I should at the eleventh hour have been unfaithful to my intention to learn aviation.

"However, the die had fallen—there could now be no turning back.

"Adieu teacher, adieu earth. The machine, inspected in all its parts, stood ready in position, the motor raced, the signal to go was given and rolling, jumping, nay flying, I move with it down the course—then suddenly success—no longer any contact with earth—on the contrary the apparatus ascends from the ground with astonishing rapidity.

"Remembering the counsel that after leaving the ground I should at once seek it again, I steer downward—the end of the instructional course, where the landing should take place, is no longer far off—the apparatus it is true, steers downward, but at the same time makes motions which I cannot explain and which disquiet me; I have a feeling that the flying machine is running away with me—a bush crops up in what appears to me to be dangerous proximity; how high I am I know not; the statements of eye-witnesses vary between seven and twelve yards; but that does not matter; the forward movement must be stopped; a jerk at the short circuit lever, the motor stops, the apparatus falls to the earth, strikes first with its starting framework and then rather audibly with its tail end; then all is quiet around me and, smoking a cigarette, I reflect on my newest experience, till the voice of my teacher startles me abruptly from my meditations.

"'You have flown quite well, but you stopped the motor in the air, and I've told you at least five hundred times you must not do that. This time nothing happened, but—' and so on.

"Penitent, physically and morally shaken and humbled and with a bent axle before my eyes, I promise improvement."

LABOR FEDERATION ACTS.

Endorses Wood Light for Ornamental Street Lighting.

The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor at its meeting Monday evening unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing the Wood magnetite lamp for the proposed ornamental lighting of Calhoun street as against the tungsten system. The resolutions, submitted by a committee composed of S. H. Randolph, F. J. Schwanz, Charles W. Kopp and Charles Krider, were as follows:

"The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor has for many years declared itself unequivocally in favor of the patronage of Fort Wayne institutions. It recognizes that the engagement of Fort Wayne products insures to a corresponding degree the employment of Fort Wayne labor.

"The Fort Wayne Federation of Labor believes that all other things being equal, the best interests of the community are best served by the purchase of local products with local funds.

"This federation recognizes in the corporation known as the Fort Wayne Electric works, an institution which employs a large number of organized and unorganized workingmen and one in which this organization, in common with the community at large, takes pride as a representative of Fort Wayne industries; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the Fort Wayne Federation of Labor deprecates the selection of the tungsten light system for ornamental lighting of a section of Calhoun street, as designed by a citizens' committee and indicated through the public press a week ago. It is further

"Resolved, That it is the sense of labor organizations represented by this federation that in the matter of the selection of a system of ornamental lighting, Fort Wayne institutions should be given at least an equal show, and in justice, a preference, which equal show we believe has been denied them. Be it further

"Resolved, That this federation records itself as being unequivocally opposed to discrimination against the products of home labor as evidenced by the published findings of the committee heretofore referred to and asks for a reconsideration thereof."

AT THE MAJESTIC

VIOLA ALLEN IN "THE WHITE SISTER" THIS EVENING.

Viola Allen, who comes to the Majestic this evening in her latest play, "The White Sister," stepped directly from the schoolroom to the stage, and not to a small part either. She went at once to the position of leading woman for the late tragedian, John McCullough, and with him for two seasons played in such old plays as "Virginius," "The Gladiator," "Othello" and "Richard III." In all since that time Miss Allen has played in more than one hundred vehicles, and her repertoire will compare favorably with that of any other woman of twice her years upon the stage. For some years she was leading woman at the famous Empire Stock company in New York, and only left there to assume the role of stardom in Hall Caine's play, "The Christian." Since that time Miss Allen has occupied a unique position in American theatricals, having for several years managed her own tours each season, and only during the last three years returned to her former managers, Liebler & Co., who are directing the present tour.

SEAT SALE THURSDAY.

Much Interest in Schumann-Heink Concert.

Notwithstanding the fact that Mme. Schumann-Heink has been most liberal in the arrangement of her program for her local appearance at the Majestic theater, Monday, April 3rd, the public may rest assured that they will get even much more. It is one of the characteristics of the famous artist that she delights in responding to the encores of her audiences until they are fully satisfied, for as she herself says, "I enjoy it as much as you." After her recent Philadelphia appearance one critic wrote:

"Her voice is as glorious as ever. She poured it out lavishly on Friday—one might almost say by the barrelsful—and proved once more what a wonderfully talented, resourceful and artistic singer she is."

The sale of seats opens at the Majestic, Thursday, March 30th, at 10 a. m.

MARTIN SAYS HE IS TRYING HARD

Does Not Believe He Will Stick But Bucks on Wheeling.

HE TELLS HIS STORY

In a letter from Hot Springs to the Grand Rapids Press Harry Martin has this to say of his experience trying to break into major league ball:

"I am having a great time going through my first experience as a bush leaguer trying to break into major league society. Some say it would be easier to break into a safety deposit vault without the aid of a jimmy, but I have not been given such an impression. All the veteran members of the Pittsburg team have greeted me cordially and every man on the team, including Catcher Gibson, has seemed anxious to see me make good.

"I have found in my experience in the baseball profession that the higher a man goes the classier lot of fellows he comes in contact with. It has never been my privilege before to meet a more intelligent and considerate lot of players than those who make up the Pittsburg team, not excepting the youngsters who, like myself, are fighting hard to keep their heads above water. On the field they are all action. Off the field baseball is not discussed except among the players themselves.

"I was greatly surprised a few days ago to read reports to the effect that I was to be sent to the Wheeling team by the Pittsburg club owners. Immediately I consulted Manager Clarke and was informed that there was no truth to the report. I would certainly hate to have to go to that town. It was a great relief to me when Manager Clarke told me that I need not worry that I would be. It is about the only town I know of that I would balk against playing in.

"So far the opportunity has not presented itself for me to show what I am capable of and I am as much in the dark as to what kind of an impression I have made as a man well could be. They are trying to make a catcher out of Jack Flynn, which makes my position much harder. Flynn is a great hitter, especially in emergencies, and they want him as utility man. His chances of being second backstop to Gibson seem pretty good. That he can hit in the National league is already known, while I have yet to show that.

"Honus Wagner was here upon our arrival and seemed to be in the finest condition. The first time he came to bat in our first regular game he hit a home run. He has his automobile here with him and they say he is taking better care of himself than ever before. He is big and awkward looking, but one only has to see him swoop down on a few balls, to say nothing of his batting, to know he is a marvelous player. The boys all like him and he deserves his popularity, being kind and considerate to all whom he comes in contact with.

"I am plugging along and doing the best I can. If I fail to make good it will not because I have not tried to. I have received nothing but encouragement so far, and hope to live up to the many kind things which have been said of me by papers throughout the Central league circuit. It would be a great pleasure to play under a man like Fred Clarke."

MAY GO TO KANSAS CITY

Danny Shay Is After Catcher From the Pittsburg Team.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 28.—Danny Shay, manager of the Kansas City club, of the American association, is here dickering with Manager Clarke of the Pirates, for players.

There is said to be a tentative arrangement whereby Shay gets two infielders and a catcher in connection with the Fred Hunter deal. Martin and O'Connor are said to be the backstops being considered, and one of them Shay will get. Clarke has not yet made up his mind which one will go, and says he will not make any decision for more than two weeks.

SOMERLOTT TO HAVE TROUBLES.

No sooner had Long John Somerlott hit the Washington club camp, than he was assigned to room with Kid Elberfeld and a general smile went around when this became known, for the "Kid" has already chased three roommates into other quarters, and "Long John" is flirting with trouble.

Elberfeld has ideas of his own on the proper amount of sleep—when to go to bed and what time to get up. He retires promptly at 9 o'clock each night, and if his roommate is not on hand then, the latter stands no chance of getting in as Elberfeld refuses to open the door. On the stroke of six in the morning Elberfeld jumps out of bed and takes a cold bath, dons his clothes, and enjoys a two-mile walk before breakfast. If his roommate takes exception to the early rising hour, the "Kid" proceeds to administer a cold bath himself, filling a big pitcher full of water and sousing it all over the sleeper.

As "Long John" Somerlott is a country boy, he may be able to get along with the "Kid" all right. But he will have to conform to Elberfeld's early-to-bed and early-to-rise notions, or else seek another room.—Washington Herald.

PRINTERS GET A BOOST IN CHASE

THE LEAGUE SCORES

A resumption of bowling in the Brunswick second league last night was marked by a boost for the Fort Wayne Printing company in the pennant chase when the five took three straight games from Aurentz's Havanas while the H. O. club landed one out of the three games with the Meyer Brothers.

The Printing company is after the pennant in the league and has promised its bowlers a bonus if they land in first place and the club has been going at a fast clip for several weeks. Play last night was featured by sensational bowling in the last game when Hudgel and Schwartz hooked up in a battle for the high individual score and the latter had to go to 236 to win out by one pin. This gave him the high average.

Traxler was largely responsible for the only victory of the H. O. five. He opened with a score better than 200 and toppled 228 pins in his third game, which gave him the best average of the evening. His total was 614. Henschen was second man for the club.

Herman Bartels was the high man for the Meyer Brothers quintet with an average of 189 and a high score of 205. Rapp gave him a battle for the average. The scores follow:

Chicago Fighter Steps on a Piece of Broken Glass in Hotel.

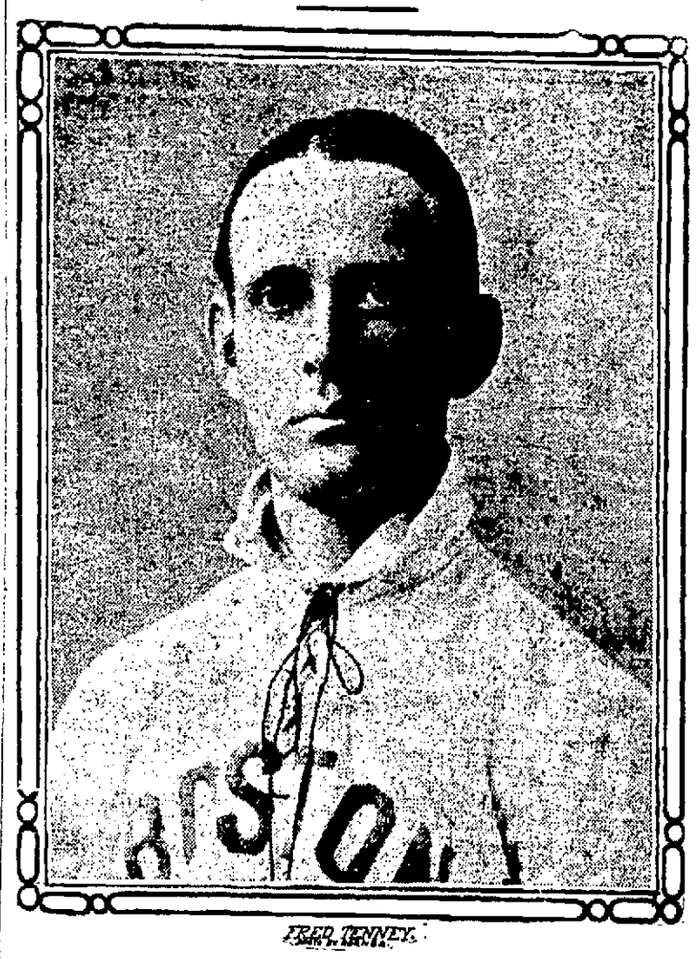
Memphis, Tenn., March 28.—An eight-round bout between Jack White of Chicago, and Joe Mandot of New Orleans, scheduled for last night, was called off because of an injury to the Chicago man an hour before the time for the fight. White stepped on a piece of broken glass at his hotel, cutting a deep gash in his right foot. The wound is not considered serious.

OVERLOOKED A GOOD MAN.

Nashville Could Have Purchased Fred Toney for $300 a Year Ago.

Nashville, Tenn., March 28.—During the stay of the Cubs here it was learned that the local management had a chance to buy Toney for $300. After the pitcher had worked a few innings before Charlie Murphy the Cub owner said he would not take $15,000 for him.

TENNY COULD NOT TOUCH HIM



FRED TENNEY.

In the days when "Pop" Anson was about to give up active playing and Fred Tenney had just created a sensation as a first baseman, Chicago and Boston were playing, with Chicago at bat. Anson was on third and Jimmy Ryan on first.

All of a sudden Ryan laughed aloud and then chuckled to himself. Tenney's quick wit conceived the idea that Ryan's laughter was the key to something that was to be pulled off, and he could think of nothing that would tickle Ryan's funny bone more than a signal for a "double steal."

Sure enough, Tenney had called the turn, for, with the next ball pitched, Ryan started for second and drew the throw, turning back, of course. Tenney saw Anson had not made a move, nor did he start when Bobby Lowe threw to Fred in the play for Ryan. Tenney knew what "Pop was waiting for, so he chased Jimmy a few steps toward second, and then, making the full motion to throw to Lowe, he held the ball, and, turning, ran as fast as he could toward the third base line. As he expected, Anson took the bait and was off for the plate.

The old man's feet were heavy and his speed a joke. He had not covered half the distance before he saw he was caught. Tenney was still on his way over, and "Pop" thought he might get back to third; but, then Tenney started him toward the plate again with a bluff to throw to Jimmy Collins. Then he kept the old man going, first one way and then the other, until he was all in. His head wagged toward the plate or bag with each pretense to throw by his tormentor, but his feet were planted. He could run no more.

Finally Anse made a last effort to get back to third, but fell all in a heap, fifteen feet away with a despairing gasp for breath.

Tenney and everyone else for that matter was convulsed with laughter, and tossing the ball to Collins, he said:

"You tag him, Jim; I haven't the heart." So Collins scored the out.

GLEN HALE AS MANAGER.

Will Have Charge of the Manistee Team in Michigan State League.

Glen Hale, former shortstop on John Ganzel's Grand Rapids club whose failure to keep in condition brought about his release, is named as the most likely candidate for the management of the Manistee team in the Michigan State league.

He has been playing at short for Cal Wenger's Cadillac club, but when the new position was opened to him his old manager decided to let him go.

Ed Heine, of this city, was an applicant for the place and the matter is in the hands of the Manistee Commercial club for final disposition. The announcement of Hale's selection was made several days ago and Heine has just returned to Fort Wayne, having submitted his proposition to the club owners.

Ty Cobb Gives Recruit a Few Lessons in Advanced Baseball.

Memphis, Tenn., March 28.—Ty Cobb took Roy Trasher, a recruit who lives near Cobb's Georgia home, and put in several hours teaching him the famous hook slide and a number of points on fast base running. Thrasher is fast and Cobb wants to see him develop into a good base runner and gave the lessons out of the goodness of his heart.

M'FARLAND ON FOR BOUT.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 28.—Tommy McFarland, the Chicago lightweight, will go fifteen rounds with Jake Barada of St. Joseph, before the Robidoux Athletic club here tonight.

SCOTTISH GOLF EXPERT WHO IS COMING TO AMERICA SOON.

R. ANDREW.

London, March 28.—Robert Andrew, of the Prestwick St. Nicholas Golf club, leaves shortly for America. It is understood that he intends taking up an appointment with a leading New York club and that he will relinquish his amateur status. Mr. Andrew has been one of the foremost amateurs for many years. He played for Scotland against England in the amateur international tournaments of 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908 and 1910. In 1909 he was a bronze medalist in the amateur championship.

MONTGOMERY HAS CUT DOWN SQUAD

Is Farming and Trading the Men Before His Training Season.

TWO FIRST BASEMEN

Wheeling, W. Va., March 28.—Manager Roy Montgomery has a little bit of a jump on the other managers in the league by reason of the fact that he began the weeding out process before his recruits were ordered to report and from five or six men contending for every position on the club, he has chopped the squad until there are now only two or three. In the first place he has a good catcher promised to him and the general impression here is that Harry Martin is the man. He will not make any admissions, but he is confident he has the right fellow for first man in the backstopping department. This leaves the understudy job open to Blincke or Welsher.

Seven men were signed for first base and all but Crane and Servatus have been disposed of or are held in reserve to go to some of the smaller leagues. Benny Jewell will hold down the short field and the place is conceded to him although there are two or three other infield prospects that he can be switched in event the midget fails to show the right sort of form.

King, bought from McKeesport and slated to fight Jewell for his job, will try out with Fred Graf at third. Graf jumped the club last year on account of criticism, but is coming back to make good. Bill Phillips regarded him as a good man. Evans, Lippold and Lewis will try for the place at second and Will Gray will be farmed, probably to Bill Phillips at East Liverpool.

Montgomery, who played in center when he was with the Zanesville club, has moved himself over into right and has decided to try to make an outfielder of Knisely, who played in the infield when he was with the Canton club. Durham, Sentz, Haught and Boone are the other three men who will be tried at the outposts.

With the pitchers, Mooney, the sensational semi-pro of Tiltonsville, will be among the first to report; Cook, of "white man's hope" fame; Nick Bier, of the O.-P. league; Troy and Beatty, secured in the McKeesport deal, are already signed, while Doak and Humphries will probably be back in the fold.

ALL PURDUE RECORDS BROKEN.

Big Squad of Candidates Out for Practice for Baseball Squad

Lafayette, Ind., March 28.—All records for big athletic squads were broken at Purdue when 132 men responded to Director Nicol's call for candidates for the freshman baseball team. There were enough candidates out to form fifteen nines. "Chick" Winston was elected manager and Mauck, captain. There are sixteen candidates for pitcher, eight for catcher, nineteen for shortstop, nineteen for first base, fourteen for second base, twelve for third base, and forty-four for outfield positions.

CHANCE WILL KEEP SAIER.

First Baseman to Be Retained by the Cubs for the Season.

Chicago, Ill., March 28.—Announcement has been made by President Charles W. Murphy of the Cubs, that he will retain Vic Saier, first baseman; Jimmy Doyle, third baseman; Pitcher Fred Toney and Pitcher "Pepper" Griffin.

WILL TAKE LONG SHOT ON ROOKIE

Varnell Will Pay Over $100 to Try Out Donovan.

IS A NEW PLAYER

In his effort to secure a first baseman Claude H. Varnell will take a long shot on W. A. Donovan, of South Lawrence, Mass., who is to be tried out on the recommendation of Manager Patsy Donovan, of the Boston Red Sox.

This fellow is a young player, but his sponsor told Manager Jimmy Casey that he was the best green first baseman he had seen perform in many years, and on the strength of this the Fort Wayne magnate will spend $100 just to see if he will play the bag acceptably. Possibly he may pick up a rough diamond who will develop into a first class man under the careful training of the new leader of the Fort Wayne squad and then again the player may not fill the bill and the money expended in paying his railroad fare to and from his home and his expenses while he is in the training camp will be lost. This is one of the chances that the owner has to take, as it is a most difficult matter at any time to get a man for the place able to play the kind of ball required in the Central league.

Twenty-two men have been ordered to report to Fort Wayne next Monday morning and the owner and manager will get here the latter part of the week to arrange for the reception of the squad. Mr. Varnell has abandoned the idea of booking exhibition games with the major league teams early in the year and although he could have some good dates for the asking, he has come to the conclusion that the weather is too uncertain to make it worth while.

For two years this plan was followed and, taken as a whole, it was a disappointment. When managers on the big circuit get their regulars primed for the going in the opening games of the regular schedule they grow wary and do not want to take a chance on crippling any of their athletes and unless weather conditions are just right they are afraid to put their stars on exhibition.

Mr. Varnell has held that this does not give his patrons a run for their money. They realize that Central league teams have no chance to win from the big fellows and they attend principally to see the noted players in action and of this they are usually disappointed. This brought about the present policy of the Fort Wayne club which has been to get as many practice dates as possible with minor leaguers or local teams.

Of the catchers who will report, the local public knows all about Bailey, Onslow and Carr. Of the pitchers, Harry Corns and Charlie Alberts are known. Pearl Stanley had a trial here last spring and was not strong enough for the Central league and was farmed. This also applies to J. W. Whittaker. Jimmy Burke's protege, who showed good form in practice last spring. James Allen and Frank Burke are two men picked up at Detroit by Manager Jimmy Casey, who thinks they are worth a trial, and George Simmons, of Ligonier, was obtained through Louie Heilbroner, who is responsible for him.

Charlie French, who went to the major league from Evansville, says that Ross Hewes, of Indianapolis, can make good in the Central and he was signed on this recommendation. Chris Chambers was picked up when the West Virginia league blew up last season and farmed to the Southern Michigan league.

George W. Hardin is one of the men secured from the Detroit team and he completes the list of pitchers who will be on hand for the spring workout. The club will start with just one of the infielders of last season. This is Eddie Justice, at short, who said last fall he had had the worst year he ever experienced in baseball. M. L. McLafferty, bought from the Kalamazoo club; Carl W. Vandegrift, who played last season with Adrian, Mich.; Harry Myers, signed last season but who failed to report on account of illness, and Manager James Casey comprise the squad from which the infield will be selected unless some others are picked up before the season starts.

Unless Eddie Coffee changes his mind about playing baseball this year, the outfield will be picked from Curley Blount, Clare Patterson and Delmer Dewaine Young, of last year's club, and R. Schwietzka, signed because Ed Pfeffer says he is a comer. If this last one sticks he will have to change or shorten up his name a bit. It's too long for baseball.

The owner says he is still on the lookout for more men and there is little doubt that he will pick up some of the men to be sent back from the National and American leagues and the American association for more seasoning. He is still after an experienced man for Dal Gainer's place and will keep after one until he either lands him or finds that there is none on the market.

READY FOR THE BOUT.

Indianapolis Card Will be Put on With Men in Condition.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 28.—Fighting Joe Hyland, the New York lightweight, and Young Saylor of this city, are resting today prior to their scheduled ten-round bout here tonight. Both men are said to be in good condition and a fast contest is expected.

Eddie Lang, a Chicago lightweight, will meet Freddy Cole of Indianapolis, also in a ten-round bout, just before the Hyland-Saylor set-to. Kid Shirley and Jimmy Anderson, local featherweights, are slated to go eight rounds in a preliminary bout.

Auditor Calvin H. Brown was at Auburn Monday to attend the funeral of Miss Ruth Culbertson.

SPARKS FROM THE SPORT WORLD

Bill Phillips has ordered more than forty men to report to his East Liverpool club to try out for places on his team.

Ben Koehler could not resist the sunshine of Saturday and he got on his uniform at South Bend and went out to Springbrook park to loosen up a bit.

Grant has begun to wield the ax at Evansville and Outfielder Broslus and Pitcher Sears were the first recruits to be separated from their meal tickets.

Somebody has poured oil on the troubled waters at Terre Haute and the newspapers have agreed to call the team the coal miners for this season at least.

Doc Wiseman has rolled into camp for his eleventh straight season as a member of the Nashville team, thus breaking all known records for consecutive service with a minor league outfit.

Aggie Grant says he was after Erve Wratten, of the Columbus, O., team until he heard that Lil Sager would be back on the job at third, then he changed his mind.

The Jefferson Avenue Rooters' club, of South Bend, has already arranged one excursion to see Eddie Wheeler's team play the champs at "The Hut." The date has been set for June 2.

Lewis, who will try for second base on the Wheeling team, is said to have a good baritone voice. Benny Jewell also has some sort of a voice and there is talk of the two going on in the winter months with a vaudeville stunt.

Jack Flourney, the former outfielder, who was handicapped last season in his work with the Louisville club because of a bad knee, says that the injury has been cured and that he is free to sign. The Houston club of the Texas league has made him an offer.

Catcher Mike Simon, of the Pittsburg club, has turned farmer, like Fred Clarke, Cy Young and others. Simon has purchased a farm in Southern Indiana, about six miles from his native village, Hayden, Ind.

If Joe Kelly, the Toronto manager, can rejuvenate such veterans as Willie Keeler, Tim Jordan and Bradley, he believes his team will make a powerful bid for the Eastern league pennant. But just now the champion Rochesters are generally picked to win right over again, as John Ganzel has a great combination of talent.

A Boston paper announces that Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pittsburg Pirates, has promised a catcher to Manager Tenney, of the Boston Rustlers. In this case it is very probable that Harry Martin will be the backstop transferred. Martin seems to be showing well enough in major league company, but may not be able to get in the Pirates' line-up, because of the number of backstops on hand.

YOUNG FEARED A FINE FOR DELAY

Thought Varnell Could Soak Him for Asking a Salary Raise.

GETS THE ADVANCE

[Dayton Herald.]

Brownie Holmes, former Dayton sporting writer now in Cleveland, stopped here long enough Saturday evening while en route to New Orleans, to tell a good one on Del Young, the giant right fielder of the Fort Wayne club.

Young lives in Cleveland, and during the winter got in the habit of dropping around to see Holmes and some of the other Cleveland writers nearly every day. When Claude Varnell sent him his contract for the coming season Young wasn't exactly satisfied with the terms. He felt he should get an increase of about $25 per month this season, and forthwith sent his contract back to Varnell with a letter telling his wants.

A week passed and the big fellow heard nothing from the Fort Wayne club. He rushed up to the Press office and made known his dilemma.

"What can they do to me for asking for more money?" he frightenedly inquired. "They haven't written me a line and I'm afraid they will suspend me sure."

Holmes told Young Varnell could do nothing with him. That he shouldn't worry about it—to let Varnell do the worrying, and that he'd soon hear from his manager.

But another week passed, and still no mail came. About this time Del was getting frantic. Visions of being suspended, blacklisted and all of the other impositions a manager can place on an unruly ball player continually passed before him.

His visits to the newspaper office were daily by that time. He searched all through the guide books and other volumes of baseball lore Holmes could place at his disposal trying to find something which gave the club owners a right to suspend players who asked for a raise in pay. He wanted to confirm his convictions.

About a month after he had returned his contract Young received a new one, and it contained the figures he had asked.

He couldn't wait to inform Holmes of his good luck. He telephoned, and then rushed down to the office to show him the contract, and then to the postoffice to mail it back to Varnell.

"I'll never hold out again," Young said after he had put his contract in the mail. "I never lost so much sleep in my life as I did while waiting to hear from Varnell."

ODDS FAVOR "THE HOPE."

Sapulpa, Okla., March 28.—With the prospect of a chance to battle for the world's championship, the prize hung up before him, Carl Morris, the Oklahoma "Hope of the White Race" was pronounced fit this morning for his 15 round combat with Mike Schreck, of Cincinnati, this afternoon. If Morris wins, his friends declare he will be the logical white man to meet Jack Johnson, for the championship. If he loses he will go back to his overalls and his railroad engine.

10 to 1 is the odds that Morris will win; 4 to 1 he will win in ten rounds, and 2 to 1 he will win in five. One bet of even money was made that Morris would win in the first round.

The fight will take place in the arena which is about one mile from the main street of the town. It is scheduled for 4 o'clock. Estimates of the attendance were around 12,000. Gate receipts will exceed $25,000. Of this the fighters get forty per cent. Nothing has been made public as to how Morris and Schreck will divide their share.

Big Sweepstake Event Proposed for the Metropolitan Alleys

One of the first things to be taken up by Ed Harkenrider, who has just become manager of the Metropolitan Bowling alleys, will be a big sweepstake for the championship of the city. All of the details have not been agreed upon but five games will be bowled and the winner will be named the city champion.

Harkenrider took charge of the alleys last night and, aside from being one of the best bowlers in the city, he is popular with the fraternity and has already inaugurated a number of improvements at the Metropolitan. The regular weekly tourney will be pulled off tonight.

DEATH AND RUIN COME IN STORM

Cyclone Hits North Philadelphia; One Dead and Many Hurt.

DAMAGE VERY HEAVY

Philedelphia, Pa., March 28.—A severe electrical storm, accompanied by a high wind which at times blew with cyclonic force, swept over the northern section of this city shortly after 6 o'clock last night, leaving destruction and death in its wake.

Buildings were demolished, houses unroofed and the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad was placed out of commission temporarily by the demolition of its tower at Holmesburg and the station at Tacony, cutting off all telegraphic communication. New York trains are being routed via the Trenton cutoff, which branch of the Pennsylvania was not in the path of the high winds.

Tacony, the section where the greatest damage occurred, was cut off from the rest of the city. Telegraph, telephone and trolly wires were blown to the ground and it was hours before the details of the catastrophe reached the central section of the city, where the storm did not appear.

The police station at Tacony was demolished. The evening squad of policemen were preparing to leave for their beats when the roof of the building was blown off and every window broken by a sudden burst of wind.

One Crushed in Debris.

At the Tacony station of the Pennsylvania railroad an unidentified man was killed when a portion of the structure was blown away. Many houses in this section were unroofed or demolished.

In the manufacturing section of Kensington, in the northest toward Tacony, several factories were destroyed, trolley wires were blown down and roofs of houses hurled to the center of the streets.

A corner section of the three-story brick factory of John Blood & Bros., manufacturers of woolens, at Trenton and Allegheny avenues, more than 100 feet in width, was torn away, wrecking much valuable machinery.

Three hundred and fifty men, who were employed here, it is said, will be out of work for at least two weeks. The factory of the Enterprise Cooperage company, near by, was struck by lightning, but the flames were extinguished before much damage had been done.

Church is Shattered.

In the fashionable section of Germantown, the storm also caused havoc. The cupola of St. Michael's church at High and Boynton streets was blown off. Jones Hall, at Germantown avenue and Sharpnack street, also lost its roof, as did the factory of the American Metal company, at Herman street and Germantown avenue. Telegraph and telephone communication to that section was also destroyed, but up to a late hour no lives had been reported lost in this section.

So completely was the Pennsylvania line to New York tied up that no trains were sent over the New York division from this city and no tickets to Philadelphia were obtainable at the New York end of the line. Trains, which had left Jersey City before the storm broke over Tacony were sent over the Trenton cutoff, which branches off from the New York division at Morrisville, Pa., opposite Trenton, N. J. This branch connects with the main line of the Pennsylvania about twenty-five miles west of this city, and it was there that the Philadelphia passengers were transferred.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, La-Grippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

VINDICATION TOO LATE.

New York, March 28.—Vindicated too late by the court, Rev. Wm. Nicholas Ackley, rector of St. Andrews Protestant Episcopal church in South Brooklyn, died at the rectory today only a few hours before Justice Marean in the state supreme court entered a decision upholding him in his fight against a hostile vestry.

Twice within the past nine months the board of vestrymen demanded that Mr. Ackley resign, locked him out of his church and he was compelled to preach from the church steps to those of his congregation still loyal. He protested to Bishop Burgess, who upheld his right to the pulpit, but the contention preyed on his mind, his health failed rapidly, and today he died—his friends say of a broken heart—just before the justice's favorable ruling. Mr. Ackley was 71 years old.

PROF. OSLER IS RIGHT

YOUTH ALWAYS SUCCEEDS AGE.

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc.; and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by

AUTO FUNERAL IS GIVEN MOTORIST

NO HORSES, HE ASKED

Chicago, March 28.—A long funeral cortege followed the body of Lewis Obendorf from his late residence, 4949 Vincennes avenue, to Rosehill cemetery this morning—made up entirely of automobiles.

Mr. Oberndorf wished it so. It was one of the last requests he made. His family acceded to his desire.

Although 68 years old, Mr. Oberndorf was one of the most enthusiastic automobilists in Chicago. He was among the first to take up what was once a sport, now considered by many a necessity. Physicians said that the long daily drives which he made through the rural districts outlying Chicago did much to preserve a constitution which had been impoverished.

He retired from the wholesale tailoring business more than ten years ago and seldom has there been a day in those ten years that he was not out in one of his cars.

Some time before he knew he had not long to live Mr. Oberndorf said to members of his family: "I don't want a single horse to have a part in my funeral."

Of late he often repeated the injunction. That is why a motor drawn hearse and motor cars for pallbearers and mourners were used.

I Cure Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic Diseases

REDUCED FEES

For the purpose of proving the advantage of my methods in the treatment of PELVIC, NERVOUS and CHRONIC diseases, I will not only give to everyone who calls at my office between now and the FIRST OF APRIL a careful and thorough examination free of charge, but further to demonstrate to the public the rapidity of the cures I make I will treat every case that I accept for a cure who call on me between now and APRIL FIRST at a GREATLY REDUCED FEE.

No man can afford to undertake his daily labor without being well equipped, mentally and physically. It is a fact that the man who is afflicted with any disease is working under a disadvantage in proportion to the extent of the trouble. Many a man has been forced to abandon a successful career because disease had lessened his ability to successfully compete with those who were strong and therefore able to forge to the front. Do you know how much you are losing every day of your life because of your inability to do the work of a strong healthy man? Do you feel as though you can afford to continue as you are when you can be cured? Perhaps you have tried to get well. Have you ever gone to a specialist, one who has made a life-long study of diseases such as yours? Perhaps you have gone to your family physician and because he could not cure you you have abandoned hope. Did you ever stop to consider that your family physician has several hundred different diseases to treat? Can you blame him for not thoroughly understanding all of them? Of course you cannot. Then why not go to one who devotes all his energies to the study of just a few, and who can then the more thoroughly understand them?

I have made a special study of Pelvic, Nervous and Chronic diseases and have developed methods which will cure where the ordinary methods have failed.

If you will call at my office I will give you a careful and thorough examination, and if your case is curable I will make you a fee as low as possible and consistent with honest, scientific treatment.

If I think your case is curable I will tell you so, as I have no time to waste, and no desire to accept money for treating incurable diseases.

BLOOD POISON—I use only the most advanced methods in the treatment of blood poison and kindred diseases.

PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT — This may result from a number of causes. The constant jarring and vibration of trains and trolley cars are a very potent cause. Bicycle riding and the use of riding implements on the farm are factors in producing the disease. In fact, the causes are so many and varied that fully 75 per cent of all male adults are afflicted to a greater or lesser extent by this disease. This disease is so little understood, and as one of the principal symptoms is a pain in the back, it is usually called kidney trouble and treated with local applications or sedatives, which can do no possible good whatever. I reduce the enlargement and have been able to cure about 90 per cent of all cases.

VARICOCELE—I cure Varicocele in a few days' or weeks' time without the use of the knife.

STRICTURE—I readily remove Stricture by my dissolvent method without the use of instruments.

RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, ETC., cured without detention from business and without the use of the knife.

TWO ENGINES OUT OF COMMISSION

One "Sideswiped" the Other in Wabash Yards at Andrews.

ITALIAN HAS A NARROW ESCAPE

Struck by Fast Train and Escapes With Broken Leg.

Two rebuilt and practically new engines belonging to the Wabash company figured in a collision at Andrews last night at 11 o'clock which put both out of commission and sent them back here for repairs. Passenger engine No. 607, just out of the shops, was en route to Peru to go into service and did not get in the clear when it backed onto a siding to give the right-of-way to an eastbound freight train. The latter was pulled by engine No. 865, out of the shops last week after general repairs, and it struck the passenger engine, throwing it from the tracks, and badly damaging both engines. The crews of both escaped injury, but the tracks were blocked by the derailed locomotive and cars and one of the passenger trains, No. 3, had to make a detour over the Big Four and the Erie lines and was delayed two hours. The damaged engines will come here tonight or tomorrow for repairs.

MAXINKUCKEE THE PLACE.

And June 26 the Date of Pennsy Annual Excursion.

The employes of the Pennsylvania company will be pleased to know that the company has granted their request to make Maxinkuckee the excursion point for the big annual event and the date Monday, June 26. This information was conveyed to President J. H. Hobrock, of the excursion association, in a communication from the railway officials. The information was also given that all necessary equipment would be furnished on that date and it will require a lot of it. The annual picnics of the employes were held at Rome City until last summer, when it was held at Lake Maxinkuckee. Every participant was pleased with the change and the sentiment favoring that point for the present year was unanimous. President Hobrock said that the occasion will be even more enjoyable next time than it was last year, for the committees are going to make a lot of additions to the entertaining features of the picnic. And particular effort is to be made to entertain the children. President Hobrock thinks the attendance this year will surpass any previous year. There will be four trains and forty or more cars. Brass and string bands will be provided and all possible amusement features furnished. The committees will get to work in a few days.

ELECTRIFYING TERMINALS.

Pennsylvania Contemplates Fitting Out Three Cities.

Among the greater improvements contemplated by the Pennsylvania in the near future are, it is said, the electrification of the terminals in Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia. For the latter city the money has already been appropriated and the proposition is now before the board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad for final action. In Boston the question has reached the stage where a bill has been introduced in the legislature which is expected to bring the agitation to a final issue and in Chicago agitation for electrifying the terminals has been inspired by a desire to get rid of the smoke nuisance and it is going to bring forth good results. By all odds the greatest electrification of American steam railway terminals was that of the Pennsylvania at its New York terminals. The contract for this work was let in 1908 and the terminals were turned over to the company last November.

THREE SPECIAL TRAINS.

Nickel Plate Handles Many Immigrants and Soldiers.

The Nickel Plate is handling a number of immigrants and soldiers at present. This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, a special train brought in several hundred Norwegians and Swedes who are en route to their homes in the northwest, after spending two or three months in their native country. Accompanying the party are a number of immigrants who will settle on farms in the west. Tonight, at 5 o'clock, another train will arrive here, carrying about 400 of this class of passengers, and tomorrow night at 6 o'clock a special train loaded with United States soldiers, bound for San Francisco, will pass through the city over the Nickel Plate. The greater portion of the immigrants and soldiers take luncheon at the Nickel Plate restaurant.

WANT ONE PRICE.

Railways in Coke Carrying Business to Revise Rate.

Lines carrying coke from Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia regions held a conference in New York city yesterday with relation to rates on coke to Chicago. At present there is a rate published of $2.35 per ton applying on coke for use in blast furnaces, and a rate of $2.65 per ton on commercial coke. In line with suggestions made by the Interstate Commerce commission one rate was recommended to apply on all coke from these districts to Chicago, viz., $2.50 per ton, being an advance in the rate on furnace coke and a reduction on commercial coke. It was suggested that this rate be made effective May 15.

MORE MONEY OR A STRIKE.

Illinois Central Telegraphers Present Their Ultimatum.

New Orleans, La., March 28.—A general strike of telegraphers employed by the Illinois Central railroad will be called on April 1 if the demands of the men for a 20 per cent increase in wages is not granted, according to local representatives of the telegraphers. This bears out previous statements of a like nature from the north. It was asserted that a strike vote already had been taken, resulting in 95 per cent of 1,600 men declaring in favor of a walk out. It is claimed by the telegraphers that the road has discharged more than 300 operators within the past few weeks.

GAVE OUT SUITS YESTERDAY.

The personnel of the Electro-Technic baseball team that will participate in the shop league games this season has been practically settled and the suits were distributed among the men yesterday. The open date season of the club will be inaugurated next Saturday afternoon, when the club will play the Concordia team on the latter's grounds. Walter Baals, who figured so conspicuously in the success of the team last year, will be with them again this year as catcher. He has returned from Schenectady, N. Y., where he spent the winter working for the General Electric company, and has taken employment with the company. The young man is a brother to Harry Baals, secretary of the Electro-Technic club.

INDIANA I. A. M. MEETING.

G. F. Rogge, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has returned from Indianapolis where he attended the semi-annual meeting of the Indiana district of the International Association of Machinists. Mr. Rogge was secretary and treasurer of the state organization and his report showed a very creditable increase in the membership of the union in the state, it being about 20 per cent. He was succeeded in office by John Masselink, of Terre Haute. The other officers are president, W. J. Pfleger; first vice president, R. E. Skiles; second vice president, William G. Norton, and organizer, John J. Keegan. The next meeting will be held September 25.

STRUCK ITALIAN LABORER.

C. Promesto Thrown in Ditch by Passenger Engine.

C. Promesto, an Italian employed as a section hand by the Pennsylvania, had a remarkable escape from death yesterday when he was struck by the engine pulling passenger train No. 23 as it was traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour. His injuries are some bruises on the body and a broken leg, but it is a wonder they were not fatal. The accident happened two miles east of Valparaiso, where the section gang of which Promesto was a member was at work. He was taken to a hospital.

GOES BACK TO THROTTLE.

At his own volition James E. Robertson has resigned as road foreman of engines of the Moberly division of the Wabash and resumed a place at the throttle in the cab of a passenger engine. His successor has not been named. This is the third change in this department within a few months, the first being the resignation of A. S. Mead and the second of Elmer Sollitt. The latter is now trainmaster of one of the Moberly divisions and Mr. Mead is a passenger engineer on the west end of the Peru division.

NOW PASSENGER FIREMAN.

John Zellers, one of the new engineers on the Pennsylvania, who was reduced in station with others when the reduction of crews was made, is now firing on passenger trains 11 and 16 between this city and Chicago. Before being promoted to engineer, Mr. Zellers was traveling fireman on the road several months. He is a member of the Pennsylvania's shop league baseball team.

FUR TRIMMED FISHING TOGS.

Encouraged by the spring-like weather of Saturday, A. C. Perry, of the Pennsylvania company carpenter shop, asked for a lay-off this week to visit his cottage at Crooked lake. Yesterday morning when the government weather indications promised "snow and colder tonight" his brother, O. L. Perry, mailed him some fur to decorate his summer fishing togs.

RETURNS TO FORMER HOME.

Because of the illness of his father and mother, who are quite aged, E. R. Kiser resigned a position at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop this morning and will return to his former home in Huntington to take care of the old folks. Before becoming a shopman, Mr. Kiser was employed as a fireman on the G. R. & I. road awhile.

TO VISIT NATIVE COUNTRY.

Louis Ebel, employed at the factory of Rastetter & Son, on Wall street, left today for New York, from whence he will sail on the George Washington next Thursday for Germany. Mr. Ebel, who spent his early life in that country, has a number of relatives and friends there with whom he will spend two or three months, returning here in June.

FELL DOWN CELLAR.

Machinist Louis McCulloch, of the Pennsylvania shops, fell down the cellar stairway at his home last night and alighted with one of his hands on a tin can on the cellar floor. The palm of the hand was painfully cut by the ragged edge of the can and Mr. McCulloch will be unable to work at the shop for several days.

GONE TO RELATIVE'S FUNERAL.

A message last night brought to John H. Byrer, a marker in the shipping department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, information of the death of his grandfather, who resided on a farm a short distance out from Warsaw. He left this morning for that place and will remain there until after the funeral.

PAINTING WABASH PROPERTY.

The painting department of the Wabash has taken up the work out on the line earlier than usual this spring. A gang is now at work on the buildings at Peru and preparations are being made to commence work at other points.

TO ATTEND MEETING.

Motive Power Supt. T. W. Demarest, Chief Clerk W. L. Wilt and Assistant Foreman A. S. Courtney, of the machine shop, are in Pittsburg to attend a meeting of Pennsylvania officials tomorrow.

SUPT. WARDROP RETURNS.

Supt. W. M. Wardrop, of the Pennsylvania, has returned from Pittsburg, where he spent Sunday with his family and attended a meeting of railway officials Monday.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

W. Lepper and W. C. Tegtmeyer, of the Pennsylvania shops, are sick and off duty.

General Foreman B. F. Sarver, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, is east on business for the company.

P. O. Perry, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of the illness of his wife.

Michinist Herman Regel, of the Bass works, is in Alexandria, Ind., looking after some repair on a steam plant.

M. G. Jason had the second and great toe of his left foot mashed yesterday when a heavy casting fell upon the member while he was at work in the Pennsylvania shops.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Humcke have gone to Chicago to spend a week with relatives. Mr. Humcke, who is a Pennsylvania boilermaker, had a finger broken some days ago and is unable to work.

Machinist B. R. Stanburry, who was struck and injured near the eye by a piece of metal last Friday, has recovered. He resumed work in the Pennsylvania erecting shop this morning.

John M. Bassett has sold his interests in the lumber and mill business at Orleans, Ind., and is now looking about for a new location in the same industry. Mr. Bassett formerly resided in Fort Wayne.

Ben Hostetter, of the Pennsylvania round house, who was operated upon at the Lutheran hospital some days ago for gallstones, is getting along first rate. It will be some weeks before he will be able to resume work.

C. E. Snyder, well known in Nickel Plate circles, has tendered his resignation as special officer of the Cleveland division, after a service of two or three years. His resignation becomes effective April 4, when he will engage as traveling salesman for a Cleviand wholesale establishment.

The Wabash railroad suffered a small loss by fire to its passenger station at Huntington Saturday afternoon. Sparks from a locomotive resulted in the roof of the structure catching fire and a hole about six feet square was burned out. The flames were extinguished by the city fire department.

It Touches DOWN on the Keys

MELVILLE CLARK'S APOLLO The Player Piano

Human Touch United States patent No. 795,817 gives to the manufacturers of the Apollo Player-Piano the exclusive right to touch directly DOWN on the keys. It is the only correct way to play a piano. All the triggers and levers in the world cannot make a player-piano correct unless the fundamental principle is correct. Just spend ten minutes having this feature of the Apollo explained. You can easily discriminate between the Apollo and all other player-pianos, from a mechanical or musical standpoint.

Metronome Self-acting Motor The Apollo Player-Piano contains a metronome self-acting motor that we guarantee would run immersed in water. It runs with so little friction that it will run clear through and rewind the longest roll of music without the necessity of pedaling. The Apollo is the only player-piano on the market containing this motor. It is patented by the manufacturers of the Apollo Player-Piano.

Transposing Tracker-Range The Apollo Player-Piano contains a patented transposing device, very simple in construction that enables you to instantly transpose a composition into any desired key or pitch for the purpose of accompanying the voice or any other instrument, such as violin, mandolin, flute. Ask one of your friends who owns one of the old style instruments not containing this feature how much they would give if they had it on their player-piano.

Solo Accent The Apollo is the only player-piano on the market that will accent the theme or melody of a composition correctly. We offer twice the price, cash, that we ask for the Apollo for any other player that will do what the Apollo will do; namely, strike simultaneously any number of keys in the same register or octave, accenting one or more of the notes and subduing the remaining. Is it not reasonable to assume that if any of our competitors had an instrument that would meet these requirements of a musician, they would hasten to accept this challenge?

We are the exclusive agents in this territory for the Apollo. We allow liberally for used pianos and player-pianos taken in exchange, and arrangements can be made for convenient payments.

WHEAT PRICES IN PAST YEARS

When It Was Down to 44 Cents and When It Was Up to $2.04.

AGED MILLER TALKS

Wheat today is quoted at 82c. This is the price it has been at since last Saturday when it fell 2c from the figures of several days' standing. Whether it will go lower or go up again is one of those market problems that the unitiated newspaper reporter is unable to solve, and a good many of the professionals, also.

There are many considerations that govern the price of wheat, principal among which is the manipulation of speculators. Supply and demand and the prospects in regard to the growing crops are also large factors. Only the close crop students can figure on these price-governing considerations.

"Wheat has frequently been much lower than it is now," said Christian Tresselt, the veteran miller, who has been in the business here for many years. "I remember very well when it was 44c a bushel." This was in 1894. It remained at those figures for a couple of months.

"During the years of the war of the rebellion it bobbed around in great shape," continued Mr. Tresselt. "Before the war in 1858, it was 85c. The next year it sold for some time at $1.65. In 1860 it dropped to $1.30, in 1861 to 90c, and in 1862 it was 91c. In 1863 we had dollar wheat, going up to $1.25, and in 1864 to $1.50, and higher.

"On the 28th of September, 1864, we bought 2,000 bushels at $2.04. The purchase was made of H. R. Schwegman, of this city, who conducted a general store. It was shipped by us to the eastern markets.

"In the early days this was a great buying center," said Mr. Tresselt, reminiscently. "It came here in immense quantities. Very frequently during the season there would be forty and fifty wagon loads of it standing in the street in front of our mills waiting to be unloaded. This was in the old canal days. The canal ran right past our mill and we just loaded it from the mill on to the boats and off it went on its journey to the eastern markets."

THE MARKETS

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., March 28.—A big decrease in the European visible supply gave some strength today to the wheat market here. There were also predictions of lighter shipments from Australia. Furthermore, Liverpool reported that for three days meager receipts had been the rule at the chief market in Great Britain. Opening prices were the same as last night. May started at 88c to 88⅛@88¼c, showing a change identical with that of the list as a whole. An advance to 88¼c followed.

Corn, at the outset, was a trifle easier, on account of the improved weather, but rallied in sympathy with wheat. May opened a sixteenth down at 48@48¼c, touched 47⅞@48c, and recovered to 48¼c.

In oats the course of prices trailed the action of the corn market. May started unchanged to a shade off at 30¼@30⅜c to 30⅜c and later rose to 30½c.

Higher quotations for hogs made provisions firm. First sales were at last night's sales to 15c higher, with May options at $16.00 to $16.05 for pork, $8.67½ for lard and $9.00 for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, March 28.—Some impetus was given to the stock market today by the strength of Americans in London, and trading at the opening was more active than for some time. Union Pacific gained a point, opening with sales of 2,500 shares, and Canadian Pacific and International Harvester advanced a like amount. Erie and Reading gained ¾ and Norfolk & Western, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste Marie and Great Northern Ore Certificates ½.

Some extensive realizing followed the initial advances, but the market took these sales well and even went a trifle higher before the upward movement ceased. Some larger blocks of stocks changed hands, especially of United States Steel, which rose to 79½c. Trading quieted materially before the end of the first hour, but prices were firmly held at the opening level. American Woolen lost a point.

After its long period of extreme dullness the stock market became much more active this morning. In the first hour about as much business was done as in the entire five hours of yesterday's session. The initial upward impulse seemed to come from London, where prices rose briskly over night. Other considerations that helped toward higher prices were the general promising outlook for crops, the feeling that the Mexican situation would now be speedily adjusted and the bullish gossip affecting individual stocks, particularly Canadian Pacific and Norfolk & Western. Midday prices showed generally gains of ½ to a point from yesterday's close. The bond market was firm.

Light selling made a slight impression on certain stocks, but the list generally was well sustained. Manhattan Elevated yielded 3 points.

Bulls professed to derive considerable satisfaction from the stability of the market of the afternoon despite prevalent dullness and the large realization, which the forenoon advances induced. A few of the leaders worked their way upward, particularly Union Pacific, in spite of its unfavorable February earnings. Atchison and Lehigh Valley.

The market closed strong. Speculation became very strong again in the closing hour with several stocks showing considerable buoyancy. Canadian Pacific bounded up to 224, a rise of 2¾. Lehigh Valley jumped over 2 points and there was a gain of 1⅝ in Western Union ... 2¾ in the preferred.

Norfolk & Western and other favorite stocks were bid up in the ... a point and the whole market reflected more confident buying than for a long time past.
